Overview & Current Events

Westamerica Bancorporation is the holding company for Westamerica Bank. Westamerica Bancorporation is a regional community bank with 79 branches in Northern and Central California. The company can trace its origins back to 1884. Westamerica Bancorporation offers clients access to savings, checking and money market accounts. The company's loan portfolio consists of both commercial and residential real estate loans, as well as construction loans. Westamerica Bancorporation is the seventh largest bank headquartered in California. It has annual revenues of about $215 million.

Westamerica Bancorporation released earnings results for the third quarter on 10/21/2021. Revenue grew 4.5% to $54.6 million, topping expectations by $1 million. GAAP earnings-per-share of $0.82 increased 10.8% from the prior year and was $0.02 better than anticipated.

As of 6/30/2021, consumer loans granted deferrals were just $1 million, with all deferrals for consumer automobile loans. Provisions for credit losses totaled $23.9 million in the quarter. Commercial loans fell 25% to $333.3 million. Net interest income was $43.3 million for the quarter, which compares to $40.9 million for the third quarter of 2020.

Growth on a Per-Share Basis

Shares²	28	27	27	26	26	26	26	26	26	26	26	24

Earnings-per-share for Westamerica Bancorporation more than doubled from 2008 to 2009, an accomplishment that few banks can claim. Earnings-per-share have declined in what is essentially a straight line since then; 2018 was just the second year since 2009 that earnings increased year-over-year. We anticipate an annual earnings-per-share growth rate of 2% through 2026 due to quality of loans and increases in revenue.

Westamerica Bancorporation has increased its dividend for the past 28 years. The company most recently increased its dividend by 2.5% on 4/15/2019, and has compounded its dividend at an average of 1.2% annually over the last decade. We expect that the historical growth rate will continue through 2026. Note that the company also tends to raise its dividend every other year, but does so in the 4th quarter to keep its dividend growth streak alive.

Westamerica Bancorp (WABC)

Updated October 21st, 2021 by Nathan Parsh

Westamerica Bancorporation's stock has decreased $1, or 1.8%, since our 7/16/2021 update. Given expected earnings-per-share for the year, the price-to-earnings ratio (P/E) is 17.8. The stock has seen its average P/E multiple vary dramatically over the past decade. Eliminating the year where the average P/E was above 24 (2017, 2018), shares of Westamerica Bancorporation have averaged a multiple just above 19. We believe a multiple of 18 times earnings is a good starting point given the likely lateness of the current economic cycle. If shares were to revert to our target P/E, valuation would add 0.2% to annual returns through 2026.

Westamerica Bancorporation trades with a forward yield of 2.9%, which is higher than the yield of the S&P 500, but just below the stock's long-term historical average 3.0%.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Payout	48%	51%	60%	66%	67%	68%	68%	60%	55%	55%	52%	52%

While earnings-per-share increased significantly during the last recession, this does not make Westamerica Bancorporation recession proof, or even an attractive investment. The company has proven that it cannot be a reliable source of earnings growth. Despite this, the company's dividend payout ratio has been relatively stable.

Westamerica Bancorporation's key competitive advantage is its ability to see an improvement in net interest income as interest rates rise. With rates near zero in order to help stimulate the economy during the COVID-19 pandemic, we feel Westamerica Bancorporation will face difficulty in growing its net interest margin. If the economy were to improve, interest rates may once again increase. This would be a material benefit to Westamerica Bancorporation were this to occur.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Following third quarter results, Westamerica Bancorporation is projected to return 5% annually through 2026, up from our previous estimate of 3.9%. Our projected returns stem from a 2% earnings growth rate, 2.9% dividend yield and a small contribution from multiple expansion. Westamerica Bancorporation continues to see a reversal of fortunes during the worst of the COVID-19 pandemic. The stock continues offer a decent yield, but we believe there are better values in the regional banking sector. We maintain our 2026 price target of $63, but view shares of Westamerica Bancorporation as a hold due to projected returns.
