Final Chance for Deep Savings: Enjoy the Strong Returns and Lower Risk of Corporate Bonds

The following is a message from Steve Shaw, Founder of BondSavvy, a company that makes corporate bond investment recommendations. Steve's presentations to AAIL have educated hundreds of investors nationwide on investing in individual corporate bonds. He recently presented the state of corporate bond investing for retail investors to the US Securities and Exchange Commission.

I founded BondSavvy so individual investors could benefit from the advantages corporate bonds provide: income, opportunities for capital appreciation, safety, low cost of ownership, and transparency.

More investors should own corporate bonds, but very few do. I founded BondSavvy to change this.

FINAL CHANCE: Act by today at 5pm EST to save up to \$155 off a BondSavvy subscription

Benefits of subscribing to BondSavvy

Before BondSavvy, investors had two unappealing choices when investing in bonds:

1. Compare often-inaccurate bond ratings and yields of thousands of different bonds to decide which individual bonds to own; and
2. Invest in bond funds that offer weak returns and high hidden fees

I founded BondSavvy because investors deserve better. Had you purchased 5 bonds of every BondSavvy recommendation, through September 30, you would have achieved \$36 in total return for every \$1 paid in BondSavvy fees.

This is a far better investor outcome compared to the returns generated and fees charged by traditional financial advisors, most of whom place clients into underperforming bond funds.

With BondSavvy, you will:

1. Receive actionable, thoroughly researched recommendations with analysis superior to bond ratings, as we consider all aspects of a bond's investment rationale.
2. Be empowered to add a dimension to your investment portfolio that is complementary to stock investing and you may have previously overlooked.
3. Save significant time, as we distill our exhaustive financial and investment analysis into sets of easy-to-understand recommendations you use to make final investment decisions.

What's included in a BondSavvy subscription?

BondSavvy levels the playing field between large money managers and individual investors. Our subscription makes it easy to invest in bonds and includes:

- Access to our 40 previous investment recommendations and updates, including 20 bonds with a Buy rating

- 16 new investment recommendations each year, which we present in sets of four after quarterly earnings releases
- Buy/Sell/Hold updates to all investment recommendations throughout the year
- Four annual 'Office Hours' webcasts where we answer subscribers' bond investing questions
- Exclusive access to our 45-minute "Corporate Bonds 101" video that teaches corporate bond investing basics and how we identify bonds that can beat the market

FINAL CHANCE TO REDEEM SPECIAL DISCOUNT

A one-year BondSavvy subscription costs $348 and a two-year subscription costs $552. But ending today at 5pm EST, we are offering $75 off a one-year subscription and $155 off a two-year subscription to Sure Dividend subscribers.
