Good morning,

This week, we are excited to announce a new feature within the Sure Analysis database!

Our spreadsheet now includes a portfolio tracker tool that allows you to input your portfolio holdings and track your dividend income month-by-month.

An example of the tool's output is shown below, which uses an equal-weight portfolio of the Dividend Aristocrats as an example:

Dividend Income by Month
January	$ 115.28
February	$ 97.60
March	$ 149.46
April	$ 115.28

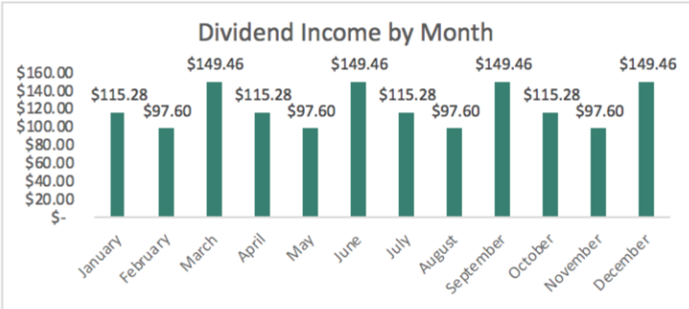
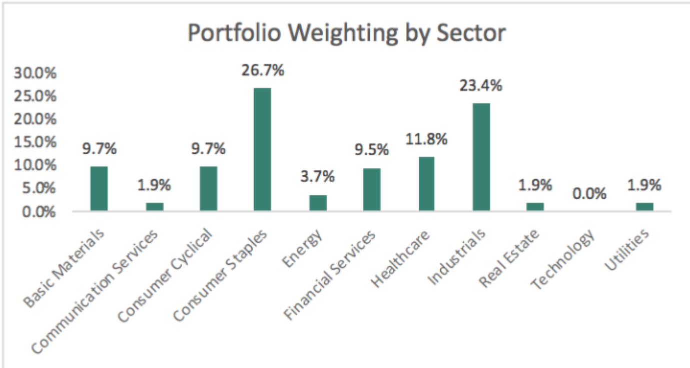
Max:	$ 149.46

Portfolio Statistics
Total Value	$ 52,314.11
Weighted Avg. Div. Yield	2.8%





This new tool is in the Sure Analysis Research Summary Excel Sheet, which you can download on our main Sure Analysis page (or just click here for today's version). See the tab on the spreadsheet named 'Portfolio Tracker'.

Please note that you will need to upload your portfolio into the latest edition of our spreadsheet in order for your portfolio's summary to reflect recent market prices.

We recommend exporting your holdings as a spreadsheet from your broker and copying/pasting rather than importing your stocks manually. This whole process can be done very quickly in well under 1 minute.

Finally, the spreadsheet / income tracker only works for securities currently in the Sure Analysis Research Database. Email support@suredividend.com with additional securities you'd like us to add in the future.
