Overview & Current Events

TE Connectivity (TEL) is a company that manufactures and sells connectivity and sensor solutions worldwide. The company operates through 3 segments: Transportation Solutions, Industrial Solutions, and Communications Solutions, which made up 60%, 26%, and 14% of sales, respectively. The Transportation Solutions segment provides sensor and connectivity components for the automotive and commercial transportation industry, the Industrial Solutions segment provides components for industrial sectors like the aerospace, defense, oil & gas, medical, and energy markets, and the Communications Solutions segment supplies components for the data and devices and appliances markets. We expect the business will benefit over the intermediate term from its investments in electric vehicles, factory automation, the cloud, and renewable energy.

Over the past 9 years, TE Connectivity has seen earnings-per-share grow at an average annualized rate of 9.6%, and over the past 5 years, the business has seen earnings-per-share grow at 8.3% annually. Management guides for $1.75 in adjusted earnings-per-share in Q3 of 2022, so for the full fiscal year 2022, we expect $7.20 in earnings per share. We forecast that the business will continue to grow earnings-per-share at 6% annually after 2022, which guides our 2027 earnings-per-share estimate of ~$9.64.

Over the past 9 years, the business has grown dividends at 10.8% annually, and over the past 5 years, the business has grown dividends at 7.8% annually. Over the next 5 years, we forecast that the business will grow dividends at 4% annually, which is slightly below our estimated earnings-per-share growth rate and historic dividend growth rate. As a reminder, TE Connectivity has grown dividend payments for 14 consecutive years, which we consider to be a strong track record of growing dividends.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	Now	2027
Avg. P/E	11.8	13.0	15.3	18.0	14.9	15.3	17.0	15.3	20.3	19.9	17.8	18.0
Avg. Yld.	2.3%	2.2%	1.9%	1.9%	2.3%	2.1%	1.8%	2.1%	2.2%	1.5%	1.8%	1.6%

Over the past 5 years, TE Connectivity has averaged a P/E ratio of 17.6, and over the past 9 years, the business has averaged a P/E of 16.1. We estimate that a P/E ratio of about 18 will be fair for the business over the intermediate term as the business continues to grow earnings-per-share. Today, the stock offers a low but growing 1.8% dividend yield. While this is certainly a low dividend yield for investors that prioritize dividend income, growth investors might be interested in this stock, because earnings-per-share are expected to grow at 6% annually and dividends are expected to grow at 4% annually over the intermediate term.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2027
Payout	27%	28%	28%	34%	34%	32%	30%	32%	44%	30%	31%	29%

The business has averaged a low payout ratio of 32.3% over the past 9 years, and we expect the dividend to continue to be safe. Additionally, we see no problems with the business's balance sheet in liquidity or solvency ratios, because the business has a current ratio of nearly 1.5, and the business's shareholders' equity is almost as large as total liabilities.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

TE Connectivity offers investors an opportunity to invest in a growing sensor and connectivity business that is likely to benefit from secular trends in electric vehicles, factory automation, the cloud, and renewable energy. At today's price, we rate the stock as a Hold because total return prospects come in at 7.8% annually over the next five years, which comes in below our 10% threshold to rate this stock a Buy. While this stock doesn't offer the best returns and isn't right for everyone, investors might be interested in this company if they are interested in Electronic Components businesses, or if they are interested in dividend growth investing.
