Overview & Current Events

Citizens Financial Group is a bank holding company for Citizens Bank, a regional bank that is based in Providence, Rhode Island. Citizens operates two segments: Consumer Banking and Commercial Banking. The consumer segment offers traditional banking products and services, such as deposit accounts, home and education loans, credit cards, business loans, mortgage and home equity loans, personal loans, auto finance loans, and wealth management. The commercial segment offers a full suite of financial products and services to businesses, including treasury management, cash management, forex and interest rate risk solutions, M&A advisory services, and more. Citizens traces its roots back to 1828 and operates about 1,000 branches in 11 states in the U.S. The stock trades with a market capitalization of $19 billion, and Citizens should generate about $8 billion in revenue this year.

Citizens reported second quarter earnings on July 19th, 2022, and results were better than expected. The top line was up 24% year-over-year to $1.99 billion, which met expectations. Earnings were $1.14 per share on an adjusted basis, which was an impressive 12 cents better than estimates.

Net interest income was $1.51 billion, up from $1.12 billion a year ago. Net interest margin was 3.04%, up from 2.71% a year ago. Noninterest expense was $1.31 billion, up from $991 million a year ago, due mostly to the HSBC/ISBC transaction. Provisions for credit losses were $216 million, a $400+ million deterioration from the benefit of $213 million in last year's Q2.

Net charge offs during the period were just 13 basis points, down from 19 basis points in Q1. Period-end loans were up 19% from Q1, but excluding the HSBC/ISBC transaction, loans would have risen 4%.

Tangible book value declined 6% from Q1 to $29.14. The company also announced an 8% increase to the dividend, which now stands at 42 cents per quarter. In addition, the company authorized $1 billion in share repurchases, which effectively adds $545 million to the existing $455 million authorization. One billion dollars is equal to just over 5% of the float at current prices.

We now see $4.70 in earnings-per-share following Q2 results.

Growth on a Per-Share Basis

Citizens has posted strong earnings growth in most years, with 2020 being the obvious exception. Citizens has been seeing strong credit metrics based on prudent underwriting strategies, resulting in lower net charge-offs and allowances for credit losses. Citizens, like just about every other bank of reasonable size, took huge credit loss provisions in 2020, but those were largely unwound in 2021 as actual results were much better than originally feared during the worst of the pandemic. We note that Citizens is seeing lower lending margins and rising expenses, given the volatile moves in interest rates that continue to take place. Given this, as well as the unsustainable nature of credit loss provision unwinding from elevated 2020 levels, we think Citizens will struggle to replicate 2021 earnings levels. However, based upon this year's lower base, we estimate 4% growth in earnings-per-share for the next few years, some of which will be driven by the bank's steady share repurchases.

We see the dividend rising in the years to come as Citizens' payout ratio is low compared to many regional banks. The dividend has proven to be a priority to management, and we believe it has the potential to hit $2.04 per share by 2027. We note that Citizens raised its payout for the first time in 2.5 years in mid-2022.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	Now	2027
Avg. P/E	---	---	15.4	16.4	12.3	11.2	11.5	9.3	12.6	10.8	8.1	11.0
Avg. Yld.	---	---	0.4%	1.6%	1.9%	1.8%	2.4%	3.8%	5.6%	3.4%	4.4%	3.2%

Citizens has been valued in the low-double-digits for the past handful of years, and we peg fair value at 11 times earnings. Shares trade at just 8.1 times this year's earnings, implying a sizable valuation tailwind. The yield is also very strong at 4.4%, and we see it remaining above 3% for the foreseeable future.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2027
Payout	---	---	6%	26%	23%	20%	28%	36%	70%	29%	36%	36%

We see the payout ratio remaining where it is today for the years to come, as earnings growth and dividend growth should be roughly congruent. We have no dividend safety concerns at this point.

Citizens, like any other bank, is beholden to economic conditions. Citizens didn't exist in its current form during the Great Recession, but regional banks in general are quite susceptible to recessions, and indeed 2020 showed what kind of impact a recession can have on earnings. Citizens, also like other regional banks, doesn't really enjoy any competitive advantages, as services are commoditized in banking to a large extent.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Citizens looks undervalued today. Given this, and 13.7% expected total returns, we are reiterating the stock at a buy rating. Dividend safety is strong, and the current yield is nearly triple that of the S&P 500, so we see Citizens as a strong income stock, and the valuation is remains attractive.
