Overview & Current Events

PepsiCo is a global food and beverage company that generates $84 billion in annual sales. The company's products include Pepsi, Mountain Dew, Frito-Lay chips, Gatorade, Tropicana orange juice and Quaker foods. The company has more than 20 $1 billion brands in its portfolio. PepsiCo was founded in 1898 and currently employs 309,000 people around the world.

On February 10th, 2022, PepsiCo announced that it would increase its annualized dividend by 7% to $4.60 starting with the dividend expected to be paid in June 2022, making the company a Dividend King. The company also announced a share repurchase authorization of up to $10 billion.

On July 12th, 2022, PepsiCo reported second quarter results for the period ending June 30th, 2022. Revenue grew 5.3% to $20.2 billion, topping analysts' estimates by $720 million. Adjusted earnings-per-share of $1.86 compared to $1.72 in the prior year and was $0.12 better than expected.

Organic sales for the second quarter were up 13%. Beverages and foods had volume growth of 6% and 3%, respectively. PepsiCo Beverages North America's revenue grew 9% organically, though volume was lower by 1%. Frito-Lay North America's revenue grew 14% despite a 2% decline in volume. Quaker Foods North America was up 18%, aided mostly by pricing, but also a 2% increase in volume. Revenues in Europe were higher by 9% as pricing offset weakness in volume. The Asia Pacific/Australia/New Zealand/China region was up 13% and Latin America gained 22%, due to gains in both convenient food and beverage. Africa/Middle East/South Asia was up 23% due a surge in beverage volume. Results overall were strong despite headwinds from supply chain disruptions, higher inflationary pressures, a negative currency exchange impact, and the Russian-Ukraine war.

PepsiCo provided a revised outlook for 2022 as well, with the company still expecting adjusted earnings-per-share of $6.63 for the year. Organic sales are now projected to be up 10% compared to the prior year, compared to 8% and 6%, previously.

PepsiCo grew earnings at a rate of 5.3% per year from 2012 to 2021. Due to company's organic growth guidance, we have reaffirmed our expected earnings-per-share growth of 5.5% through 2027. PepsiCo's growth over this time period will accrue from organic sales growth and share repurchases.

Following the dividend increase for the June dividend payment, PepsiCo has the required 50 years of dividend growth to become a member of the Dividend Kings.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	Now	2027
Avg. P/E	17.4	18.4	20.8	20.7	21.4	21.6	19.1	23.1	24.7	27.7	25.6	21.0
Avg. Yld.	3.1%	2.8%	2.8%	2.9%	2.9%	2.8%	3.1%	2.9%	2.9%	2.4%	2.7%	3.3%

PepsiCo's stock has decreased $4, or 2.4%, since our April 26th, 2022 report. Based off of earnings guidance for 2022, the stock has a P/E of 25.6. We reaffirm our 2027 target P/E of 21 from 20 to match the stock's average valuation since 2012 and the quality of recent results. Reverting to our target would reduce annual returns by 3.9% over the next five years.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2027
Payout	54%	53%	59%	60%	61%	60%	61%	69%	73%	68%	69%	69%

PepsiCo is a relatively recession-proof company. Earnings grew during the last recession and it offers a generous dividend yield. The company is expecting to return $7.7 billion in cash to shareholders in the form of dividends and share repurchases in 2022. PepsiCo has several key competitive advantages that set it apart from the competition. The company is one of the largest in its sector, which gives it pricing power with vendors. While known for their carbonated beverages, Pepsi's food and snacks make up slightly more than half of sales. PepsiCo has also adjusted to changing consumer habits. The company's line of "Better for You" offerings are designed to meet consumers' desire for healthier food and drink options. Products with less than 70 calories from added sugar make up about half of sales.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Following second quarter earnings results, PepsiCo is projected to produce an annual return of 4.2% through 2027, up from our prior estimate of 3.7%. Our projected returns stem from a 5.5% earnings growth rate and a starting yield of 2.7% offset by a low single-digit headwind from valuation reversion. Once again, PepsiCo has successfully navigated the impact from higher raw material costs in its business through the use of price increases without impacting demand very much, demonstrating the company's ability to resonate with customers. PepsiCo is now also a member of the Dividend Kings and offerings a market beating yield. We maintain our 2027 price target of $182 and now view shares of PepsiCo as a hold due to projected returns.
