Valuation Analysis

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	Now	2028
Avg. P/E	10.3	11.3	12.3	11.5	13.3	15.1	16.1	15.5	17.2	14.0	13.9	14.0
Avg. Yld.	3.0%	3.1%	2.9%	3.5%	3.5%	3.2%	2.7%	2.8%	2.6%	3.3%	3.1%	3.1%

Shares of Cisco have increased $6, or 14.0%, since our May 21st, 2022 report. The 2009 to 2010 time frame saw shares of Cisco trade with a well above average price-to-earnings multiple. Over the last decade, shares have traded with an average P/E of 13.2. Given the company's overall business performance of the past few years, growth in deferred revenue, and large cash balance coupled with near-term guidance, we have lowered our target P/E to 14 from 15. Reaching our target valuation by 2028 would add just 0.2% to annual returns during the period.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Payout	30%	35%	36%	40%	46%	51%	45%	45%	45%	45%	43%	43%

Cisco ended the fourth quarter of fiscal 2022 with $19.3 billion in cash and equivalents. Given the cash on the balance sheet, it is likely that Cisco would be able to continue to pay a dividend even in the event of an extended recession.

With everything from computers to cell phones to buildings connected today, Cisco is in a prime position to capitalize on the Internet of Things. In fact, Cisco is responsible for 80% of all the data moved over the internet in the past 30 years. While Cisco continues to enjoy hardware dominance, the company is attempting to become more of a subscription services company. This should help create more predictable revenue streams. One such example of this effort is the Catalyst 9K switch. This switch is twice as fast as competing products and protects data and cloud networks.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Cisco Systems is projected to return 8.9% annually over the next five years, down from our prior estimate of 10.7%. Our estimated return stems from a 6% earnings growth rate, a 3.1% dividend yield, and a small contribution from multiple expansion. Cisco's outperformed expectations during the quarter and offered guidance that was well received by the market. We have raised our five-year price target $4 to $66 due to revised guidance, but now view shares as a hold due to total return potential.
