Overview & Current Events

Amdocs Limited (DOX) is a B2B software company that serves communications service providers (CSPs). The business has software solutions that help CSPs to transition from working in the traditional data center environment to operating effectively in the cloud. The business has developed strong offerings around the cloud microservices architecture, which allows the large and cumbersome applications used by telecom companies to be divided into separate, simple components that can all be managed independently. Amdocs is set to capitalize on megatrends in 5G, Cloud, and digitalization, and management expects that these megatrends will help their serviceable addressable market continue to expand. The business serves communications service providers across the world with its 29,000 employees and has ~75% recurring revenue. The business's strong resiliency from its recurring revenue business model and strong operations have led to extremely stable operating margins over the past 10 years, where margins have steadily increased from 17.0% in 2012 to 17.5% in 2021. Management sees room for long term growth in the business by retaining and building new platforms for the current customer base, expanding the footprint within underpenetrated Tier 1 customers, like Verizon and Charter Communications, and adding new businesses to the current services. Management expects to deliver double-digit shareholder returns in 2022 for the second consecutive year.

On August 3rd, 2022, Amdocs Limited reported Q3 2022 results for the period ending June 30th, 2022. The business earned $1.27 in adjusted earnings-per-share for the quarter, down 5.9% year-over-year, which was right in line with consensus estimates. The company saw revenue increase 8.8% year-over-year to $1.16 billion, which was again nearly right in line with estimates. The business saw Non-GAAP operating margins of 17.6%, which was above the midpoint of management's target range of 17.2-17.5%. Additionally, Amdocs had a record backlog this quarter of $3.95 billion, which grew 10% year-over-year and $60 million quarter-over-quarter.

Management guided for $1.26-$1.32 in adjusted earnings-per-share for the fourth quarter, which helped to guide our 2022 earnings-per-share forecast of $5.30. We conservatively forecast that over the intermediate term, the business will grow earnings-per-share at 6.0% annually, which guides our 2027 earnings-per-share estimate of ~$7.09.

Over the past 5 years, the business has grown dividends at 12.9% annually. Over the next 5 years, we forecast dividend growth of about 3% annually, because we expect dividend growth to be a little slower than earnings-per-share growth.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	Now	2027
Avg. P/E	13.0	14.1	16.9	17.7	21.2	20.8	26.9	17.4	17.3	19.2	16.6	18.0
Avg. Yld.	0.4%	1.5%	1.3%	1.3%	1.3%	1.4%	1.5%	1.8%	2.0%	1.9%	1.8%	1.4%

Over the past 9 years, Amdocs has averaged a P/E ratio of 18.5, and over the past 5 years, the business has averaged a P/E ratio of 20.3. We estimate that over the intermediate term, the business will trade for a P/E ratio of around 18, in line with historic P/E valuation multiples. Today, the stock offers a low 1.8% dividend yield, which isn't ideal for investors seeking dividend income, but investors may find this business attractive because of the company's recurring revenue business model, and the fact that the company is poised to benefit from megatrends like 5G, cloud and digitalization.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2027
Payout	6%	21%	23%	23%	28%	29%	39%	32%	34%	37%	30%	26%

The business has averaged a payout ratio of 27.1% over the past 9 years, and 34.3% over the past 5 years. With a low payout ratio below 40%, we expect that the dividend is safe from any cuts or decreases because it is well-covered by earnings. The business has a strong balance sheet, with almost enough cash on hand to cover all debt. As a recurring revenue business, this company has strong recession resiliency, and has seen revenue and operating margins increase every year for the past 10 years. This business may have a competitive advantage because of its niche offering it provides to CSPs.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Amdocs Limited offers investors an opportunity to invest in a recurring revenue business that is helping to digitize communications service providers. Management expects the company to benefit from megatrends like 5G, the cloud, and digitalization. At today's price, we rate the stock as a Hold because total return prospects come in at 9.1% annually over the next five years. Still, investors might be interested in this company if they are interested in investing in a recurring revenue business that's benefiting from digitalization trends.
