Overview & Current Events

PepsiCo is a global food and beverage company that generates $89 billion in annual sales. The company's products include Pepsi, Mountain Dew, Frito-Lay chips, Gatorade, Tropicana orange juice and Quaker foods. The company has more than 20 $1 billion brands in its portfolio. PepsiCo was founded in 1898 and currently employs 309,000 people around the world.

On February 9th, 2023, PepsiCo announced that it would increase its annualized dividend by 10% starting with the dividend expected to be paid in June 2023, extending the company's dividend growth streak to 51 consecutive years. Also on February 9th, 2023, PepsiCo reported fourth quarter and full year results for the period ending December 31st, 2022. Revenue grew 10.9% to $28 billion, beating analysts' estimates by $1.17 billion. Adjusted earnings-per-share of $1.67 compared to $1.53 in the prior year and was $0.02 better than anticipated. A stronger U.S. dollar was a 3% headwind to revenue and a 1% drag on earnings-per-share. For the year, revenue grew 8.7% to $23.3 billion while adjusted earnings-per-share of $6.42 compared to $6.26 in 2022.

Organic sales grew 14.6% and 14.4% for the fourth quarter and full year, respectively. For the quarter, volume growth for beverages was flat while convenient foods were lower by 2%. PepsiCo Beverages North America's revenue grew 10% organically, driven mostly by acquisitions as volume fell 2%. Frito-Lay North America was higher by 18% due mostly to pricing. Quaker Foods North America was up 10%, as pricing action was partially offset by a 7% decrease in volume. Revenues in Europe were higher by 12% as pricing once again offset weakness in volume for both product categories. Latin America increased 19% and the Asia Pacific/Australia/New Zealand/China region improved 12%, led by 8% and 5% improvement in beverage volume, respectively. Africa/Middle East/South Asia was up 21% due to ongoing strength in beverages.

PepsiCo provided an outlook for 2023 as well, with the company expecting adjusted earnings-per-share of $6.93 for the year. Organic sales are projected to be up 6% compared to the prior year. We have initiated our forecast accordingly.

PepsiCo grew earnings at a rate of 4.4% per year from 2013 to 2022. Due to company's organic growth guidance, we have reaffirmed our expected earnings-per-share growth of 5.5% through 2028. PepsiCo's growth over this time period will accrue from organic sales growth and share repurchases.

Following the dividend increase for the June dividend payment, PepsiCo has raised its dividend for 51 consecutive years, making the company a member of the Dividend Kings.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	Now	2028
Avg. P/E	18.4	20.8	20.7	21.4	21.6	19.1	23.1	24.7	27.7	28.1	25.4	21.0

PepsiCo's stock has increased $7, or 4.1%, since our October 12th, 2022 report. Based off of earnings guidance for 2023, the stock has a P/E of 25.4. We reaffirm our 2028 target P/E of 21 to better match the stock's average valuation since 2013 as well as the quality of recent results. Reverting to our target would reduce annual returns by 3.7% over the next five years.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Payout	53%	59%	60%	61%	60%	61%	69%	73%	68%	71%	73%	73%

PepsiCo is a relatively recession-proof company. Earnings grew during the last recession and it offers a generous dividend yield. The company is expecting to return $7.7 billion in cash to shareholders in the form of dividends and share repurchases in 2023. PepsiCo has several key competitive advantages that set it apart from the competition. The company is one of the largest in its sector, which gives it pricing power with vendors. While known for their carbonated beverages, Pepsi's food and snacks make up slightly more than half of sales. PepsiCo has also adjusted to changing consumer habits. The company's line of "Better for You" offerings are designed to meet consumers' desire for healthier food and drink options. Products with less than 70 calories from added sugar make up about half of sales.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Following fourth quarter earnings results, PepsiCo is projected to produce an annual return of 4.6% through 2028, matching our prior estimate. Our projected return stem from a 5.5% earnings growth rate and a starting yield of 2.9%, offset by a low single-digit headwind from valuation reversion. PepsiCo continues to produce strong organic growth rates and guidance calls for further gains in 2023. The company is using price increases to offset inflationary pressures, but demand has only fallen slightly in some areas and not at all in others. This demonstrates the power of PepsiCo's brands. We have raised our 2028 price target $5 to $190 to reflect guidance, but we continue to rate shares of PepsiCo as a hold due to projected returns.
