Updated February 8th, 2023 by Nathan Parsh

Shares of WEC Energy Group are unchanged since our November 1st, 2022 update. Based off of the current share price and the company's expected earnings-per-share for 2023, WEC Energy Group trades with a price-to-earnings ratio of 20.0. We reaffirm our five-year target valuation of 19 to better reflect the average earnings multiple for the last decade. If the stock reverted to this valuation by 2028 then shareholders would see annual returns reduced by 1.0% over this time period.

WEC Energy Group has a dividend yield of 3.4% currently, which is just above the 10-year average yield of 3.2% for the stock.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Payout	58%	60%	74%	67%	66%	66%	66%	67%	66%	65%	68%	68%

The expected dividend payout ratio for 2023 is 68%, which is relatively low for a utility company. WEC Energy Group has a targeted payout ratio of 65% to 70%. Earnings-per-share increased during the last recession, growing nearly 13% from 2007 to 2009. As a utility company, WEC Energy Group is likely to remain profitable during recessions as customers usually prioritize their gas and electric bills. The company is able to recover spending to update infrastructure through the customers it serves. WEC Energy Group's expansion into renewable energy, like wind farms, could help the company to grow at a higher than expected rate due to the potential of higher return on investments. Low unemployment and colder temperatures in its service areas should also help the company improve its financial metrics.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

After fourth quarter results, WEC Energy Group is expected to offer a total annual return of 8.1% through 2028, up from our previous estimate of a 6.2% return. Our projected return stems from an annual earnings growth rate of 6% and a starting yield of 3.4%, offset by a low single-digit headwind from expected valuation compression. WEC Energy topped estimates for the quarter and raised guidance once again. That said, the stock is slightly ahead of our target valuation. We have raised our five-year price target $10 to $117, but reaffirm our hold rating on WEC Energy Group due to projected returns.
