Overview & Current Events

Bank of Marin Bancorp (BMRC) operates as the holding company for Bank of Marin that provides a range of financial services primarily to small and medium-sized businesses, professionals, not-for-profit organizations, and individuals through 27 retail offices and eight commercial banking offices in California, the United States. It offers commercial and retail deposit and lending programs, personal and business checking and savings accounts, and wealth management and trust services. The majority of its revenue comes from interest income, with total assets of $4.1 billion, and total interest-earning assets of $4.0 billion. The company was founded in 1889 and has 302 employees.

On April 24th, 2023, Bank of Marin Bancorp released its first quarter 2023 results for the period ending March 31st, 2023. For the quarter the company reported earnings of $9.4 million which represents a 27.7% decrease compared to the record earnings of $12.9 million in the fourth quarter of 2022 and is also a decline compared to the $10.5 million in the first quarter of 2022. Reported diluted earnings per share were $0.59 in the first quarter, compared to $0.81 in the prior quarter, and $0.66 in the same quarter last year.

For the reporting period, the loans totaled $2.112 billion which was an increase of $20 million, while deposits decreased by $322.8 million to $3.251 billion. The first quarter tax-equivalent net interest margin decreased 22 basis points over the preceding quarter from 3.26% to 3.04%. Credit quality remains strong, with non-accrual loans representing 0.10% of total loans as of March 31st, 2023, compared to 0.12% on December 31st, 2022. Net interest income totaled $29.9 million for the first quarter of 2023, compared to $33.4 million for the prior quarter. Non-interest income, related to Wealth Management and Trust Services, totaled $2.9 million for the first quarter, largely unchanged from the preceding quarters. All capital ratios were above well-capitalized regulatory requirements. The bank has confirmed that there have been some deposits outflows related to industry concerns in March and pandemic surge deposits redeploying to money market funds, but the largest transactions were related to the normal operating activities. Overall, the bank reported that its deposit balances have been stable since March 22nd and through April 20th, and believes it is a reflection of the effective relationship management and strong, diversified deposit franchise.

During the past decade shares of Bank of Marin Bancorp have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 16 and today, it stands at 8.0. We are using 10 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation tailwind. The company's dividend yield is currently 4.8% which is above the average yield over the past decade of 2.1%.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Payout	29%	24%	30%	27%	44%	27%	32%	41%	41%	34%	38%	44%

During the past five years, the company's dividend payout ratio has averaged around 35%. Bank of Marin Bancorp's dividend is at the moment comfortably covered by earnings. Given the expected earnings growth, there is room for the dividend to continue to grow at least at the same pace and keep the payout ratio around the same levels which is safe.

Bank of Marin Bancorp has demonstrated a solid financial performance combined with a sound asset quality track record and has a business model focused on business and community banking. The majority of its revenue comes from interest income. Solid loan originations, excellent credit quality, and efficient processes are key in this business and has management's attention. The bank has a strong base of core deposits that allows the company to grow efficiently while delivering consistent performance in all rate environments. The local presence and local market expertise help the company to keep funding costs low. As a result, the company has an impressive track record of 17 consecutive years of dividend increases. Bank of Marin Bancorp is included in the Russell 2000 Small-Cap Index and Nasdaq ABA Community Bank Index.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Bank of Marin Bancorp is a business and community bank in Northern California, with assets of $4.1 billion, and has 31 retail branches and 8 commercial banking offices located across 10 counties. The local presence, local market expertise, a strong base of core deposits, and good credit quality should enable the bank to delivering consistent performance in all rate environments in the long run. As with many regional banks, the bank's share price has come under selling pressure since the recent banking crisis emerged and is down 36% year-to-date. We estimate total return potential of 12.8% per year for the next five years based on a 4% earnings-per-share growth, the starting yield of 4.8%, and a valuation tailwind. The shares earn a buy rating.
