Overview & Current Events

Cambridge Bancorp (CATC), the parent company of Cambridge Trust Company, is based in Cambridge, Massachusetts. The company is a regional bank that provides commercial and consumer banking, and trust and investment management services to individuals and businesses. Cambridge Trust Company has approximately $5.5 billion in assets on March 31, 2022, and a total of 22 offices in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Cambridge Trust Company is one of New England's leaders in private banking and wealth management with $4.3 billion in client assets under management and administration on March 31, 2022. The company was founded in 1890 and has 380 employees.

On April 25th, 2023, Cambridge Bancorp released its first quarter 2023 results for the period ending March 31st, 2023. For the quarter the company reported net income of $12.4 million which represents an increase of $1.1 million, or 9.7% compared to net income of $11.3 million for the quarter ended December 31, 2022. Reported earnings per diluted share for the same periods were $1.58 and $1.44, an increase of 9.7% compared to the previous quarter. Net interest and dividend income, before the provision for credit losses, decreased by $6.6 million, or 16.2%, to $34.2 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2023, from $40.9 million for the quarter ended December 31, 2022. This was primarily due to higher cost of funds, although it was partly balanced by a rise in the average earning assets and higher yields on those assets. The adjusted Net Interest Margin (NIM) decreased by 45 basis points to 2.63% in the reporting quarter. Total deposits decreased by 3.3% or $158.6 million this quarter. Excluding wholesale deposits, total deposits decreased by $300.2 million, or 6.8% in the first quarter. Total noninterest income increased by 6.5%, to $10.7 million for the quarter, and was almost 24% of total revenue. The change in noninterest income is due to an increase in other income and loan-related derivative income, and a decrease in wealth management fees. Management expects limited growth in 2023 for its loans and core deposits. NIM is now expected to decline to 2.20% in the second quarter and close to 2% by the end of the year. Previously, the company expected full year 2023 NIM to be in the range 2.85% to 3.00%.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Avg. P/E	11.6	11.8	11.9	11.9	18.9	14.8	14.8	12.0	11.0	11.4	7.0	10.0
Avg. Yld.	1.9%	3.8%	3.9%	3.7%	2.7%	2.3%	2.6%	3.5%	2.8%	2.8%	5.0%	3.5%

During the past decade shares of Cambridge Bancorp have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 13 and today, it stands at 7.0. We are using 10 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation tailwind. The company's dividend yield is currently 5.0% which is above the average yield over the past decade of 3.2% and the five-year average of 2.8%.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Payout	44%	46%	44%	52%	34%	38%	42%	31%	32%	32%	35%	35%

During the past five years, the company's dividend payout ratio has averaged around 40%. Cambridge Bancorp's dividend is comfortably covered by earnings. Given the expected earnings growth, there is room for the dividend to continue to grow at least at the same pace and keep the payout ratio around the same levels which is safe.

Cambridge Bancorp has demonstrated a strong financial performance (operating net income and EPS growth) combined with a sound asset quality track record and has a business model focused on private banking. The bank's Wealth Management capability is well suited to service the highly affluent Boston and southern New Hampshire markets. The company is the 18th largest independent investment advisers in Massachusetts³. Cambridge Bancorp's strategic focus is expanding the Wealth Management assets under management and leveraging the private banking model in highly attractive markets. The recent merger with Northmark contributes to the strategic expansion into attractive, affluent North Andover, Andover and Winchester markets.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Cambridge Bancorp is an old and well-established regional bank active in Massachusetts and New Hampshire with a solid earnings track record and a dividend yield 5.0%. As a result of the ongoing banking crisis, the company's share price may continue to see some short-term pressure. We estimate total return potential of 17.1% per year for the next five years based on a 6% earnings-per-share growth, the dividend yield, and a valuation tailwind. The shares earn a buy rating.
