Overview & Current Events

Cambridge Bancorp (CATC), the parent company of Cambridge Trust Company, is based in Cambridge, Massachusetts. The company is a regional bank that provides commercial and consumer banking, and trust and investment management services to individuals and businesses. Cambridge Trust Company has approximately $5.5 billion in assets on June 30th, 2023, and a total of 22 offices in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Cambridge Trust Company is one of New England's leaders in private banking and wealth management with $4.4 billion in client assets under management and administration on June 30th, 2023. The company was founded in 1890 and has 380 employees.

On July 18th, 2023, Cambridge Bancorp released its second quarter 2023 results for the period ending June 30th, 2023. For the quarter, the company reported net income of $7.1 million which represents a decrease of $5.3 million, or 42.7% compared to net income of $12.4 million for the previous quarter. Excluding merger related charges, net income was $9.6 million, representing a 24.3% decline compared to the previous quarter. Reported earnings per diluted share for the same periods were $0.91 and $1.58, a decrease of 42.4% compared to the previous quarter.

Net interest and dividend income, before the provision for credit losses, decreased by $4.5 million, or 13.1%, to $29.8 million for the three months ended June 30, 2023, from $34.2 million for the three months ended March 31, 2023. This was primarily due to higher cost of funds, partially offset by an increase in average earning assets and higher yields on earning assets. The adjusted net interest margin decreased by 37 basis points to 2.26% in the reporting quarter. Total deposits, inclusive of wholesale deposits, decreased by $214.2 million, or 4.6%, to $4.44 billion on June 30th, 2023, as compared to $4.66 billion at March 31st, 2023, primarily due to lower wholesale deposits. Total noninterest income decreased by $686,000, or 6.4%, to $10.0 million for the quarter, and was almost 25% of total revenue. This change was primarily the result of lower other income and lower loan related derivative income, partially offset by higher wealth management revenue. Management expects limited growth in 2023 for its loans and core deposits. Asset quality remained strong with ratios of non-performing loans to total loans and non-performing assets to total assets at 0.18% and 0.13%, respectively.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Avg. P/E	11.6	11.8	11.9	11.9	18.9	14.8	14.8	12.0	11.0	11.4	11.0	12.0

During the past decade shares of Cambridge Bancorp have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 13 and today, it stands at 11.0. We are using 12 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation tailwind. The company's dividend yield is currently 5.0% which is above the average yield over the past decade of 3.2% and the five-year average of 2.8%.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Payout	44%	46%	44%	52%	34%	38%	42%	31%	32%	32%	55%	63%

During the past five years, the company's dividend payout ratio has averaged around 40%. Cambridge Bancorp's dividend is comfortably covered by earnings. Given the expected earnings growth, there is room for the dividend to continue to grow at least at the same pace and keep the payout ratio around the 60% levels.

Cambridge Bancorp has demonstrated a strong financial performance (operating net income and EPS growth) combined with a sound asset quality track record and has a business model focused on private banking. The bank's Wealth Management capability is well suited to service the highly affluent Boston and southern New Hampshire markets. The company is the 18th largest independent investment advisers in Massachusetts³. Cambridge Bancorp's strategic focus is expanding the Wealth Management assets under management and leveraging the private banking model in highly attractive markets. The recent merger with Northmark contributes to the strategic expansion into attractive, affluent North Andover, Andover and Winchester markets.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Cambridge Bancorp is an old and well-established regional bank active in Massachusetts and New Hampshire with a solid earnings track record and a dividend yield 5.0%. As a result of the ongoing banking crisis, the company's share price may continue to see some short-term pressure and lower quarterly results. We estimate total return potential of 9.3% per year for the next five years based on a 3% earnings-per-share growth, the dividend yield, and a valuation tailwind. The shares earn a hold rating.
