RPM International manufactures, markets and distributes chemical products to industrial, retail and specialty customers. The majority of sales are made to industrial customers. RPM was founded in 1947 and employs more than 15,000 people today.

On October 6th, 2022, RPM announced that it was increasing its quarterly dividend 5% to $0.42, extending the company's dividend growth streak to 49 consecutive years.

On July 26th, 2023, RPM announced earnings results for the fourth quarter and fiscal year 2023 for the period ending May 31st, 2023. For the quarter, revenue grew 2.0% to a fourth quarter record $2.02 billion, which was $40 million above estimates. Adjusted earnings-per-share of $1.36 compared to $1.42 in the prior year, but was $0.07 better than expected. For the fiscal year, revenue grew 8.2% to a record $7.26 billion while adjusted earnings-per-share reached a new record of $4.30.

The three largest segments within the company produced record revenue for the fourth quarter. Companywide, organic sales improved 2.6% for the quarter, which follows organic growth of 8.9% in the prior year's period. Revenue for the Consumer Group increased 4.9% to $716 million. This segment had organic growth of 5.6% as higher prices offset inflationary pressures. The Construction Products Group increased 0.3% to $748 million. This segment had organic growth of 0.8% due to higher selling prices. Performance Coatings Group grew 8.8% to $358 million. Organic sales were higher by 10.4% due to volume growth in those businesses that service infrastructure and reshoring projects. Revenue of $193 million for Specialty Products Group was a 14.3% decline year-over-year due to lower volumes in those businesses that serve OEM markets. Organic sales declined 12%.

RPM projects mid-single-digit sales growth for fiscal year 2024. We forecast earnings-per-share of $4.92 for the fiscal year, which would be a 14.4% increase from the prior year.

The last recession had a severe impact on RPM's earnings, which saw a decline of 42% from 2008 to 2009. It was not until 2013 that RPM's earnings numbers recovered above 2008's total. In recent years, growth has been much steadier. From fiscal year 2014 to fiscal year 2023, earnings per share grew at a rate of 7.0% per year. That growth rate has accelerated to 10.1% over just the last five years. Factoring in the strength of recent results with the likely declines in earnings during the next recession, we now forecast annual earnings growth of 7%, up from 5%, through fiscal year 2029. Organic revenue growth is expected to be the primary contributor.

Growth slowed during the last recession, but RPM was able to maintain and increase its dividend payments to shareholders even in an adverse economic climate. RPM is now one year away from achieving Dividend King status.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2029
Avg. P/E	17.7	19.8	17.3	21.2	15.9	20.1	24.4	22.5	24.1	18.5	21.3	20.0
Avg. Yld.	2.5%	2.2%	2.4%	2.2%	2.6%	2.6%	1.9%	1.6%	1.8%	2.1%	1.6%	1.7%

Shares of RPM have increased $23, or 28%, since our April 10th, 2023 update. Using expected earnings-per-share for fiscal year 2023, the price-to-earnings ratio is 21.3. We have raised our target P/E to 20 from 18 as this is more in-line with the long-term average valuation and reflects the quality of earnings results over the past few years. If the stock were traded with this multiple by fiscal 2029, then valuation would be a 1.3% headwind to annual returns over this period.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Payout	44%	43%	41%	48%	47%	53%	47%	37%	43%	39%	34%	34%

RPM is not recession proof, as shown by the company's decline in earnings, and in the time that it took for earnings growth to return to the company following the last recession. The company also has a high level of debt that could make acquisitions or high dividend growth difficult if earnings were to weaken.

RPM is a leading manufacturer and distributor of paints, coatings, construction chemicals, colorants and adhesives to consumers, contractors, and construction businesses. These businesses perform well when the economy is growing due to the increases in construction and home improvement spending. However, RPM is very susceptible to recessions.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

After fourth quarter results, RPM International is now expected to return 7.2% per year through fiscal year 2029, up slightly from our previous estimate of 5.7%. Our forecast stems from a 7% earnings growth rate and a starting yield of 1.6% that are partially offset by low single-digit headwind from multiple compression. RPM International continues to deliver record setting results, an impressive feat considering the growth rates that the company experienced last fiscal year. Price increases have not greatly impacted demand. We have raised our five-year price target $30 to $138 to reflect estimates for the fiscal year and the increase in our expected earnings growth rate and target valuation. We continue to rate shares of RPM International as a hold due to projected returns.
