Overview & Current Events

BancFirst Corp. (BANF) serves as the financial holding company for BancFirst, a state-chartered bank headquartered in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The company was founded in 1984, and the subsequent year merged with seven other bank holding companies based in Oklahoma. The company acquired other banks and bank holding companies for the next several years. BancFirst has 106 banking locations serving 59 communities throughout Oklahoma and has over 1,900 employees. BancFirst offers retail customers and small and mid-sized businesses various commercial banking services. This includes checking, savings, CDs, personal loans, and other services for retail customers. The bank offers business lending services for commercial customers, including agricultural and multi-family loans and various business banking services. The company has a $2.7 billion market capitalization.

On October 19th, 2023, BancFirst Corporation reported third-quarter results for Fiscal Year (FY)2023. The Company reported net income of $51.0 million, or $1.52 diluted earnings per share, compared to $55.4 million in Q3 2022. Nine-month net income for 2023 was $163.5 million, up from $136.0 million in 2022.

The company's Q3 2023 net interest income rose to $104.3 million, driven by increased short-term interest rates and loan growth. Noninterest income fell to $44.4 million, attributed to reduced interchange fees and the absence of an equity interest income.

Noninterest expenses increased to $81.2 million, primarily due to higher salaries and employee benefits. The effective tax rate for the period was 21.8%, up from 19.0% in Q3 2022.

As of September 30, 2023, total assets were $12.1 billion, loans were $7.5 billion, and deposits totaled $10.5 billion. Asset quality remained strong, with nonaccrual loans at 0.22% of total loans. The allowance for credit losses to total loans was 1.31%, and net charge-offs were 0.02% of average loans for Q3 2023.

On August 25th, 2023, the company increased its dividend for the 30th consecutive years with a 7.5% increase.

Growth on a Per-Share Basis

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028

DPS	$0.60	$0.65	$0.70	$0.74	$0.80	$1.02	$1.24	$1.32	$1.40	$1.52	$1.66	$2.02
Shares²	31.0	31.0	32.0	32.0	33.0	33.0	33.0	33.0	33.0	33.0	33.0	33.0

BancFirst has grown EPS, averaging 14.2% per year over the past ten years and 10.8% over the past five years. However, going back to a more extended 15-year period to account for the prior recession, the bank has only grown earnings by an average of 6.1% per year. With the current interest environment, we expect EPS to grow at around a rate of 4% for the next five years, which is in line with its long-term earnings growth. The bank's net margin has increased in recent years, from 22.4% in FY2020 to 34.6% in FY2022. For 2023, the net margin is expected to be 35.7%. Also, we see it increasing this year as the Fed is expected to continue to increase the interest rate this year.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	NOW	2028
Avg. P/E	16.5	16.1	14.1	21.8	19.4	14.8	15.4	19.6	14.0	15.3	13.0	15.0
Avg. Yld.	2.1%	2.1%	2.4%	1.6%	1.6%	2.0%	2.0%	2.3%	2.0%	1.7%	2.1%	1.8%

BancFirst's P/E ratio has averaged 16.7x over the past ten years, with relatively little change from year to year. We feel that a multiple of 15.0x is fair for a company of this size with a low estimated growth rate and yield. Thus, the company looks undervalued based on the average PE with a current PE of 13.0x. The stock currently has a price-to-book (PB) ratio of 1.9, lower than its five-year average of 2.0.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2028
Payout	34.3%	32.2%	33.5%	33.3%	28.7%	27.1%	30.6%	44.0%	27.8%	26.3%	26%	26%

BancFirst is a well-managed bank that has raised its dividend for 30 consecutive years and emerged from the global financial crisis relatively unscathed. Although earnings fell approximately 35% from their peak in 2007 to their bottom in 2009 and then took five years to surpass the 2007 peak, this was very healthy compared to many other banks in the country. At no point did earnings fall enough to put the dividend payout ratio above 50%. Today, the bank has a highly diversified asset base with commercial loans, real estate loans, and debt securities, maintaining compliance with banking regulations and capital reserve ratios.

Oklahoma's banking industry is diversified, and the company does not have a significant competitive advantage over regional or national banks. However, well-run banks generally enjoy high switching costs, as depositors are unlikely to go through the hassle of switching banks in most scenarios. BancFirst has considerably outperformed the S&P 500 and all of the "Big Four" national banks over the past 25 years in total shareholder returns, indicating an above-average company culture and management team. David Rainbolt was the CEO for virtually all of this extended outperformance, but two years ago moved on to become the executive chairman. At the same time, David Harlow, former BancFirst president, is now the CEO.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

BancFirst is a small bank with a long stretch of consistent dividend growth, significant resilience through recessions, and history of considerably outperforming the broader banking industry and the stock market more generally. Interest rates and other factors outside their control may be a negative headwind as we advance. Due to the decrease in price since our last report, we expect a five-year annual rate of return of 8.7%. Thus, we rate BancFirst a hold at the current price because of the expected total return.
