Valuation Analysis

| Year      | 2014 | 2015 | 2016 | 2017 | 2018 | 2019 | 2020 | 2021 | 2022 | 2023 | Now  | 2029 |
|-----------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|
| Avg. P/E  | 15.2 | 16.4 | 14.3 | 14.7 | 14.1 | 11.1 | 12.8 | 10.9 | 12.0 | 11.0 | 10.7 | 12.5 |
| Avg. Yld. | 1.9% | 1.3% | 1.5% | 1.2% | 1.2% | 1.7% | 1.9% | 1.3% | 1.4% | 1.5% | 1.7% | 1.8% |

During the past decade shares of Raymond James Financial have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 13.8 times earnings and today, it stands at 10.7. We are using 12.5 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation tailwind. The company's dividend yield is currently 1.7% which is above the average yield over the past decade of 1.4%.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

| Payout | 19%  | 21%  | 22%  | 17%  | 17%  | 18%  | 24%  | 15%  | 18%  | 20%  | 18%  | 23%  |

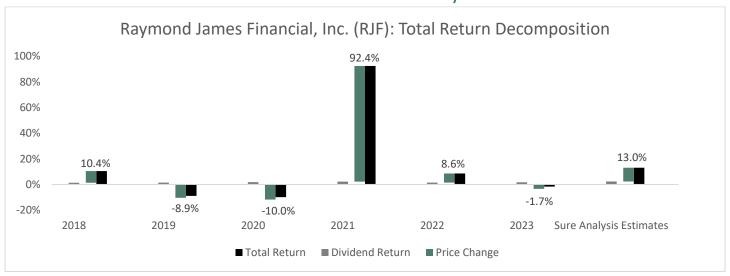

During the past five years, the company's dividend payout ratio has averaged around 18%. Raymond James Financial 's dividend is comfortably covered by earnings. Given the expected earnings growth, there is room for the dividend to continue to grow at least at the same pace and keep the payout ratio around the same levels which is safe. Management is targeting a 20% to 30% dividend payout ratio.

Raymond James' revenue and earnings held up well despite the current bear market and previous recessions. The company has an impressive streak of 138 consecutive quarters of profitability and strong credit ratings (A-/Stable Outlook (Fitch)). The company has diverse and complementary businesses and the ability to leverage different services across revenue segments. Its strategy is to be the "Premier Alternative" to Wall Street. The company has established a track record for growing efficiently through acquisitions in recent years. In June 2022, Raymond James Financial completed its $1.1 billion acquisition of TriState Capital Holdings Inc. We expect the company to use its free cash flow to continue its M&A activities in the coming years but at a slower pace.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Raymond James Financial is a well-established capital markets company with a solid earnings track record and a dividend yield of 1.7%. The company should be able to grow client assets under management, organically and via acquisitions. We estimate total return potential of 13.0% per year for the next five years based on an 8% earnings-per-share growth, the dividend yield, and a valuation tailwind. Shares earn a buy rating.
