2022. Revenue growth has been 9.10% over the past three years. Net margin has also seen a rise in recent years. In 2020, the net margin was 14.7%, and now the net margin is 13.1% for 2023. However, because of the fast growth in 2021, we expect the company to grow earnings at a CAGR of 5% for the next five years.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	Now	2029
Avg. P/E	20.3	22.1	22.0	24.1	22.2	24.3	16.9	15.5	18.2	19.7	19.7	20.0
Avg. Yld.	1.5%	1.7%	1.8%	1.6%	1.7%	1.6%	1.6%	1.2%	1.5%	1.6%	1.7%	1.7%

The company looks fairly valued at the current price point. Over the past ten years, the company has averaged a PE of 20.5x. We think that a PE of 20x is fair. At the current price, the company now sports a PE of 19.7x. Thus, it is under its ten-year average. The current dividend yield of 1.7% is a little higher with its ten-year average of 1.6%. Thus, the company looks fairly valued based on dividend yield.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2029
Payout	30.6%	37.3%	39.5%	37.4%	38.0%	37.9%	26.8%	19.3%	26.8%	32.3%	33%	34%

Service Corporation International's competitive advantage is that it is the most prominent funeral home/cemetery operator in North America. This benefits the company because it can operate more efficiently. This also allows the company to take advantage of the funeral home/cemetery market. The top three companies have only 15% of the total market share in the funeral home/cemetery market. Thus, this leaves plenty of room for industry consolidation, which Service Corporation should be able to take advantage of.

During the Great Recession, the company did well. Earnings were flat in 2008 and only decreased by (2)% in 2009. However, the company stock price did take a significant price decrease of (75.4)% in those years. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the company did very well. Earnings grew 53% in 2020 and 57% in 2021. Thus, the company is very resilient to a recession.

The company balance sheet looks well enough. The company has an S&P credit rating of BB+, which is not an investment grade. Also, the company currently has a debt-to-equity ratio of 3.1x, which is a little on the high side. However, interest coverage is satisfactory at 4.0x.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Service Corp International is a company that goes under the radar for most investors. The company is a solid business that should continue to do well over the long term. We expect the company to generate an 6.9% CAGR over the next five years. This will mostly come from earnings growth. Thus, we rate the stock as a hold at the current price.
