Overview & Current Events

PPG Industries is the world's largest paints and coatings company. Its only competitors of similar size are Sherwin-Williams and Dutch paint company Akzo Nobel. PPG Industries was founded in 1883 as a manufacturer and distributor of glass (its name stands for Pittsburgh Plate Glass) and today has approximately 3,500 technical employees located in more than 70 countries at 100 locations. With more than five decades of consecutive dividend increases, PPG Industries is a member of the Dividend Kings and trades on the New York Stock Exchange. The company generates annual revenues of more than $18 billion.

On July 20th, 2023, PPG Industries raised its quarterly dividend 4.8% to $0.65, extending the company's dividend growth streak to 52 consecutive years.

On April 18th, 2024, PPG Industries reported first quarter results for the period ending March 31st, 2024. For the quarter, revenue decreased 1.6% to $4.31 billion, which was $120 million less than expected. Adjusted net income of $441 million, or $1.86 per share, compared to adjusted net income of $432 million, or $1.82 per share, in the prior year. Adjusted earnings-per-share were in-line with consensus estimates.

First quarter organic revenue growth was lower by 2%, or 1% when excluding a large customer purchase in the prior year. Performance Coatings revenue fell 1% to $2.61 billion. Higher selling prices (+1%) and favorable currency exchange (+1%) only partially offset a decline in volume (-3%). As with prior quarters, Aerospace demand was robust, with organic sales up a mid-single-digit percentage. Protective and Marine coatings were up slightly while Automotive refinish coatings were flat. Revenue for Industrial Coatings fell 3% to $1.7 billion. Volume (-1%) and net selling prices (-2%) were down slightly from the same period a year ago. Demand for Automotive OEMs was lower due to weakness in the U.S. and Europe while Asia Pacific and Mexico experienced above-market growth. PPG Industries also announced a share repurchase authorization of $2.5 billion, or 8.1% of the company's current market capitalization.

For the second quarter of 2024, PPG Industries expects organic sales growth in the low single-digits and adjusted earnings-per-share in a range of $2.42 to $2.52. For 2024, the company expects organic sales to be higher by a low single-digit percentage and adjusted earnings-per-share in a range of $8.34 to $8.59. At the midpoint, this would represent a 10.4% increase from the prior year.

PPG Industries' earnings-per-share have a growth rate of 7.4% over the last decade. We expect earnings-per-share to grow at a rate of 8% through 2029. PPG Industries' demand dropped significantly due to the impact of COVID-19 in 2020, but has largely recovered from the worst of the pandemic. The company produced record results in 2023 and is projected to establish a new high for earnings-per-share once again in 2024. We expect dividends to grow at a rate similar to earnings-per-share going forward.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	Now	2029
Avg. P/E	24.7	20.9	31.1	17.1	19.8	22.2	25.3	21.3	20.8	19.5	15.5	19.0

Shares of PPG Industries have declined $10, or 7.1%, since our January 21st, 2024 update. The stock has traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of 22.3 over the last decade. We reaffirm our target price-to-earnings ratio of 19 for 2029. Shares are currently priced at 15.5 times expected 2024 earnings-per-share. If the stock's multiple were to revert to our target over the next five years, then valuation would be a 4.2% tailwind to annual returns during this period.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2029
Payout	32%	28%	48%	27%	32%	33%	37%	33%	40%	33%	31%	31%

Even after more than five decades of dividend growth, PPG Industries has a very low payout ratio. The only time the company's dividend payout ratio was above 50% for the year in the relatively recent past was 2009. The average payout ratio since then is just 34%, demonstrating how conservative the company has been with regards to its dividend.

PPG Industries' key advantage is that it is one of the most well-known and respected companies in the paints and coatings space. The company is also one of just three similarly-sized companies in this industry, which limits PPG Industries' competitors. This gives PPG Industries size and scale and the ability to increase prices. This has been reflected in the company's ability to increase product prices in order to offset volume declines.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Following first quarter results, PPG Industries is expected to offer a total annual return 14.1% through 2029, up from our prior estimate of 12.4%. Our forecast stems from an expected earnings growth rate of 8%, a starting yield of 2.0%, and a low single-digit contribution from multiple expansion. PPG Industries' first quarter saw some areas of weakness in its business. The company set several quarterly records last year so comparable periods will likely be challenging this year. However, PPG Industries has maintained its earnings guidance for 2024, which would result in another new record for the company. We maintain our 2029 price target of $236 and continue to rate shares of PPG Industries as a buy due to projected returns.
