Overview & Current Events

Zions Bancorporation (ZION) is a bank holding company that operates full-service banking offices in 11 western states in the U.S. The company also offers a range of investment, mortgage, insurance, and electronic commerce services. Zions primarily focuses on providing banking services to small and midsize businesses, with the majority of its loans focused on commercial and commercial real estate lending. The company was formerly known as ZB, National Association and changed its name to Zions Bancorporation, National Association in September 2018. The company was founded in 1873 and has 9,984 employees.

On April 22nd, 2024, Zions Bancorporation released its first quarter 2024 results for the period ending March 31st, 2024. For the quarter, the company reported net earnings of $143 million, a decrease compared with net earnings of $198 million in the same quarter of 2023. Earnings per diluted share were $0.96 compared to $1.33 for the year-ago quarter.

The company's net interest income was $586 million, down 14% from $679 million in the prior-year quarter. Results were primarily aided by lower provisions and stable adjusted expenses. However, a decline in net interest income (NII) and non-interest income, and a fall in loan balance were major headwinds. The net interest margin (NIM) was 2.94%, down from 3.33% in the first quarter of 2023, although there was a slight increase from 2.91% in the previous quarter. Noninterest income was slightly down to $156 million from $160 million in the first quarter of the previous year. Noninterest expense increased to $526 million, which included a $13 million FDIC special assessment accrual. Total loans and leases were $58.1 billion, marking a 3% increase. The provision for credit losses was $13 million, down from $45 million. The allowance for credit losses was 1.27% of loans and leases, up from 1.20% in the previous year. The efficiency ratio increased to 67.9%, up from 59.9% in the prior-year period. A rise in the efficiency ratio indicates a decrease in profitability. Total deposits increased by 7% to $74.2 billion. Short-term borrowings decreased significantly to $4.9 billion from $12.1 billion. The estimated Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) capital ratio improved to 10.4% from 9.9%.

The management's guidance for 2024 indicates a stable outlook, with net interest income expected to face pressure from elevated funding costs, potentially offset by the repricing of earning assets in a higher interest rate environment. Loan and deposit volumes are anticipated to show modest growth, reflecting ongoing economic activities and market conditions.

The company has grown earnings by 11.1% per year since 2014 and 0.7% over the past five years. After the above-average growth EPS in 2021 and the decline in EPS for 2022 due to the absence of loan loss provision recoveries that occurred last year ($276 million), we expect earnings to increase by 3% per year for the next five years and key business drivers such as loan growth and NII to return to historical levels. The company has been able to increase its dividend for 11 consecutive years. Over the last five years, the average annual dividend growth rate is 5.1%. In July 2022, the company increased its quarterly dividend by 7.9% from $0.38 to $0.41 per share.

Valuation Analysis

During the past decade shares of Zions Bancorporation have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 13 and today, it stands at 9.5. We are using 10 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation tailwind. The company's dividend yield is currently 4.0% which is above the average yield of 1.8% over the past decade, primarily due to the drop in the share price.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2029
Payout	10%	18%	14%	16%	25%	31%	45%	21%	29%	29%	38%	42%

During the past five years, the company's dividend payout ratio has averaged around 31%. Zions Bancorporation's dividend is comfortably covered by earnings. Given the expected earnings growth, there is room for the dividend to continue to grow at least at the same pace and keep the payout ratio around the same levels which is safe.

Zions Bancorporation is a strong collection of community banks with local decision-making and a focus on commercial banking. The local "ownership" helps the company to spot local market opportunities and better understand specific regional challenges. Roughly 2/3 of revenue is from commercial customers. The bank is undergoing a digital banking replacement (called FutureCore) to improve its customer experience and lower operating costs. The new digital banking should strengthen Zions' competitive position and reduces its risk profile.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Zions Bancorporation is an old and well-established regional bank active in 11 western states with a solid earnings track record and a dividend yield of 4.0%. As with many regional banks, Zions' share price has come under selling pressure since the banking crisis emerged but showed some recovery in the second half of 2023. The coming year(s) could be a bumpy road for regional bank stocks. Still, we estimate total return potential of 7.7% per year for the stock over the next five years based on a 3% earnings-per-share growth, the dividend yield, and a small valuation tailwind. Shares earn a hold rating.
