Overview & Current Events

Silvercrest Asset Management Group is a prominent investment management firm specializing in providing personalized wealth management services to high-net-worth individuals, families, and select institutional investors. Founded in 2002, the firm is headquartered in New York City and is known for its client-centric approach, combining sophisticated investment strategies with comprehensive financial planning. Silvercrest offers a wide range of services, including portfolio management, estate and tax planning, family office services, and philanthropic advisory.

On May 2, 2024, Silvercrest Asset Management Group Inc. reported its financial results for Q1 2024, highlighting a supportive equity market environment. This positive market trend began in Q4 2023, providing a conducive atmosphere for business growth. Despite anticipating ongoing economic and market uncertainties, Silvercrest has numerous business opportunities and initiatives underway, including strategic hires to bolster future growth. A notable development is the addition of a new team to enhance its international and global equity investment capabilities, diversifying its offerings. In Q1 2024, Silvercrest's Discretionary Assets Under Management (AUM) grew by $0.8 billion (3.7%) to $22.7 billion, while total AUM increased by $1.2 billion to $34.5 billion. Year-over-year, from Q1 2023, Discretionary AUM rose by 6.6%, and total AUM by 15.4%. Despite a 2.9% increase in top-line revenue, the company's expenses, especially compensation, led to a decrease in several business metrics. Silvercrest's new institutional business pipeline has expanded significantly, now totaling $2.0 billion, up from $0.7 billion in Q4 2023.

Q1 2024 financial highlights include total AUM of $34.5 billion, revenue of $30.3 million, GAAP consolidated net income of $4.9 million, and net income attributable to Silvercrest of $3.0 million. Adjusted EBITDA was $7.5 million, with adjusted net income at $4.7 million. Basic and diluted net income per share stood at $0.32, while adjusted basic and diluted earnings per share were $0.34 and $0.33, respectively. Expenses increased by $1.7 million (7.4%) to $24.4 million, primarily driven by higher compensation and benefits costs. Consolidated net income was $4.9 million, down from $5.3 million in the previous year. Silvercrest declared a quarterly dividend of $0.19 per share of Class A common stock, payable on June 21, 2024. Meanwhile, its liquidity declined, with cash and cash equivalents at $39.7 million compared to $70.3 million at the end of 2023. Total equity stood at $83.9 million as of March 31, 2024.

Growth on a Per-Share Basis

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2029
EPS	$0.86	$0.78	$0.86	$0.95	$1.30	$1.17	$1.89	$1.35	$1.12	$1.44	$1.44	$2.00
DPS	$0.48	$0.48	$0.48	$0.48	$0.56	$0.60	$0.64	$0.66	$0.70	$0.74	$0.76	$1.00
Shares¹	7.8	8.0	8.1	8.1	8.5	9.5	9.7	9.9	9.6	9.5	9.5	21.5

As the chart above illustrates, while SAMG's earnings per share have experienced some volatility from year to year, the overall trend has been strongly higher over time. This strong earnings growth has enabled management to consistently grow its dividend each year for several years now. Moreover, with the expected payout ratio for 2024 being just slightly over 50%, it appears that SAMG is poised to continue growing its dividend per share for years to come at a pace that is likely going to be only slightly slower than our expected 6.8% earnings-per-share CAGR for the company through 2029.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	Now	2029
Avg. P/E	17.44	16.67	12.79	14.74	13.85	17.09	7.94	12.59	10.71	10.42	10.76	11.00
Avg. Yld.	3.20%	3.69%	4.36%	3.43%	3.11%	3.00%	4.27%	3.88%	5.83%	4.93%	4.90%	4.55%

SAMG stock currently trades for a price-to-earnings ratio of 10.8 based on our earnings estimate for this year. Our estimate of fair value is a price-to-earnings ratio of 11 due to the volatility of the earnings from year to year, countered by the solid growth track record of the company and its focus on growing its dividend consistently. As a result, SAMG stock appears to be slightly undervalued and poised for slight valuation multiple expansion moving forward.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Payout	56%	62%	56%	51%	43%	51%	34%	49%	63%	51%	53%	50%

SAMG is highly profitable, which leads to very strong interest coverage ratios and its balance sheet is overall quite strong, with low debt levels and strong current and quick ratios. Meanwhile, its capital-light business model enables it to return a significant amount of cash to shareholders while also investing for growth in the business. It operates in a fairly niche part of the wealth management industry, so it is able to avoid competing quite as heavily with some of the biggest names in the asset management industry as some other companies face. Moreover, by building long-term relationships with its clients, it is able to improve the stickiness of its assets under management. It is also worth noting that its earnings did not suffer too much during COVID-19 and it even grew its dividend in 2020.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

SAMG stock appears to be slightly overvalued at the moment, resulting in an expected annual tailwind from multiple expansion alongside solid growth potential and an attractive current dividend yield. As a result, our overall annualized total return expectation over the next half-decade is an attractive 11.3%, making the stock a Buy at current prices.
