Overview & Current Events

Founded in 1890 and headquartered in Abilene, Texas, First Financial Bankshares Inc (FFIN) is a financial and bank holding company with a strong focus on community banking. Concentrated solely in Texas, the company's competitive position thrives in this single geographic area. Through its subsidiaries, the company offers a comprehensive range of commercial banking services, including checking, savings, and time deposits, as well as modern conveniences like internet and mobile banking.

On July 18th, 2024, the company announced results for the second quarter of 2024. FFIN reported Q2 non-GAAP EPS of $0.37, beating the market's estimates by $0.01, and revenues of $137.11 million were up 6.48% year-over-year. First Financial Bankshares attributed the solid performance to strong loan growth and an expanding net interest margin. In fact, management has emphasized that a strategic focus on asset reallocation and deposit growth gives them a positive vibe about the remainder of the year.

Net interest income was $103.27 million, net of tax, versus $95.87 million in Q2 2023, driven by an improved net interest margin of 3.48%. Noninterest income also climbed to $31.27 million, driven by increases in both trust and mortgage income, a decrease in debit card fees and service charges on deposits. However, the provision for credit losses checked in at $5.89 million. Noninterest expenses increased to $65.01 million due to employee-related costs. Total assets reached $13.16 billion as of June 30, 2024; loans and deposits rose quite significantly year-over-year. Shareholders' equity expanded to $1.52 billion as unrealized losses on the securities portfolio reduced slightly.

Growth on a Per-Share Basis

High interest rates could reduce consumer demand for credit, particularly for residential real estate loans, which account for about 25% of the total loan portfolio. However, the anticipated lower rates might compress net interest margins, and the company's strategic focus on loan growth and asset reallocation positions it well to navigate these changes. FFIN aims to capitalize on lower borrowing costs to drive loan demand and support deposit growth. The company is committed to maintaining strong financial performance and delivering value to shareholders and customers, even in a potentially lower-rate environment for the remainder of 2024.

As a result, we matched analysts' EPS estimates of $1.52 in 2024 and have maintained an annual expected EPS growth rate of 7.0% for the next five years, lower than the bank's long-term growth rates, which could mean EPS of $2.13 by 2029. First Financial Bankshares' DPS had a 10-year and five-year CAGR of 11.1% and 32.5%, respectively. Moreover, the bank has consistently increased dividend distributions to shareholders for the past 14 years, and we expect it to continue this trend.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	Now	2029
Avg. P/E	21.5	19.9	21.8	23.6	24.4	26.1	21.4	29.8	25.3	21.1	25.0	20.0
Avg. Yld.	1.9%	2.0%	2.0%	1.8%	1.5%	1.5%	1.7%	1.2%	1.6%	2.4%	1.9%	2.7%

First Financial Bankshares is trading at a forward P/E of 25.0, higher than its long-term average P/E of around 23.5. Considering the banking sector's fears, a lower multiple is justifiable. Even though our FFIN thesis remains intact, we believe that a P/E multiple of 20.0 fairly reflects the bank's risk/reward profile, suggesting a target price of $43 by 2029.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Payout	40%	40%	44%	42%	37%	39%	36%	36%	40%	51%	47%	54%

First Financial Bankshares boasts a competitive advantage stemming from its unwavering commitment to customer-centric services and localized approach. The bank has demonstrated resilient recession performance throughout economic downturns due to its conservative lending practices and diversified portfolio. This strategic approach has minimized risk and upheld stability. Finally, First Financial's prudent financial management is evidenced by its manageable debt levels, further contributing to its position as a robust and trustworthy financial institution.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Despite concerns in the banking sector, the stock has gained since our last report. Thus, we reaffirm our hold rating, premised upon the 4.6% annualized total returns for the medium-term, derived from the forecasted earnings-per-share growth of 7.0%, the 1.9% dividend yield, offset by a valuation headwind.
