Overview & Current Events

Bank of Marin Bancorp (BMRC) operates as the holding company for Bank of Marin that provides a range of financial services primarily to small and medium-sized businesses, professionals, not-for-profit organizations, and individuals through its roughly 30 retail offices and eight commercial banking offices in California, the United States. It offers commercial and retail deposit and lending programs, personal and business checking and savings accounts, and wealth management and trust services. The majority of its revenue comes from interest income, with total assets of $3.7 billion, and total interest-earning assets of $3.6 billion. The company was founded in 1889 and has 302 employees.

On July 29th, 2024, Bank of Marin Bancorp released its second quarter results for the period ending June 30th, 2024. The company reported a net loss of $21.9 million, a significant decline from the $2.9 million in earnings reported in the first quarter of 2024 and down from $9.4 million in the second quarter of 2023. Reported diluted loss per share was $(1.36) for the second quarter, compared to earnings of $0.18 in the previous quarter and $0.28 in the second quarter of 2023.

The substantial loss in the second quarter was primarily driven by a $32.5 million pretax loss related to the sale of $325 million in low-yielding investment securities as part of a strategic balance sheet restructuring aimed at enhancing future profitability. Excluding this loss, adjusted net income for the quarter would have been $1.0 million, with an adjusted diluted earnings per share of $0.06. For the reporting period, loans totaled $2.082 billion, reflecting an increase from $2.055 billion at the end of the previous quarter, supported by strong loan originations of $64.1 million.

Deposits stood at $3.214 billion, a slight decrease from $3.284 billion in the prior quarter, largely due to the timing of month-end payments. The tax-equivalent net interest margin (NIM) for the second quarter increased slightly by 2 basis points to 2.52%, up from 2.50% in the first quarter of 2024. The company's capital ratios remained strong, with total risk-based capital ratios at 16.46% for Bancorp and 15.54% for the Bank, both above the well-capitalized threshold, though slightly lower than the first quarter due to the realized losses on securities sales. Looking forward, Bank of Marin Bancorp is focused on leveraging the proceeds from the securities sale to invest in higher-yielding loans and securities, which are expected to contribute positively to net interest margin and earnings in the latter half of 2024. Specifically, the bank anticipates a 30 basis point increase in annualized net interest margin and an estimated $0.46 per share in annualized earnings accretion beginning in the third quarter of 2024. The bank anticipates improved profitability as it continues to manage expenses, maintain strong asset quality, and capitalize on positive trends in loan growth and core deposit gathering.

During the past decade shares of Bank of Marin Bancorp have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 16 and today, it stands at 24.3. We are using 17 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation headwind. The company's dividend yield is currently 5.2% which is well above the average yield over the past decade of 2.1%.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2029
Payout	24%	30%	27%	44%	27%	32%	41%	41%	34%	81%	125%	131%

During the past five years, the company's dividend payout ratio has averaged around 46%. Bank of Marin Bancorp's dividend is currently covered by earnings, but something to watch, as the annual dividend payout is nearly equivalent to the estimated earnings for this year. Given the expected earnings growth, there is still some room for the dividend to continue to grow at least at the same pace.

Bank of Marin Bancorp has demonstrated a solid financial performance combined with a sound asset quality track record and has a business model focused on business and community banking. Most of its revenue comes from interest income. Solid loan originations, excellent credit quality, and efficient processes are key in this business and has management's attention. The bank has a strong base of core deposits that allows the company to grow efficiently while delivering consistent performance in all rate environments. The local presence and local market expertise help the company to keep funding costs low. As a result, the company has an impressive track record of 17 consecutive years of dividend increases. Bank of Marin Bancorp is included in the Russell 2000 Small-Cap Index and Nasdaq ABA Community Bank Index.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Bank of Marin Bancorp is a business and community bank in Northern California has total assets of $3.7 billion and operates 30 retail branches and eight commercial banking offices located across 10 counties in California. 2023 was a challenging year for the bank in terms of profitability, with strategic decisions made to restructure the balance sheet significantly impacting earnings for both the quarter and the full year. However, these actions are anticipated to contribute to a stronger financial position in the future. We estimate total return potential of 2.0% per year for the next five years based on a 3% earnings-per-share growth, the dividend yield, and a valuation headwind. The coming year(s) could be a bumpy road for regional bank stocks. Shares earn a sell rating due to the projected returns.
