Overview & Current Events

Jackson Financial Inc. (JXN) primarily offers annuity products to retail investors in the United States. The company operates in three segments and provides a range of retirement income and savings options. The Institutional Products segment includes traditional investment contracts and funding agreements. The Closed Life and Annuity Blocks segment offers various insurance products. The company distributes its offerings through a diverse network of financial intermediaries.

On August 7th, 2024, the company announced results for the second quarter of 2024. Jackson Financial reported Q2 non-GAAP EPS of $5.32, beating estimates by $0.96.

This increase was driven by higher spread income, growth in variable annuity assets under management, and share repurchases, offset by rising market-related costs. The company achieved record sales in its registered index-linked annuity (RILA) products, reaching $1.4 billion, a significant increase from $541 million in Q2 2023. Total annuity assets under management also rose 9% to $247 billion.

With this strong capital position and disciplined approach to capital management, Jackson is well-positioned for further growth. The company returned $144 million to shareholders in the quarter and received an additional $750 million in share repurchase authorization. With over $500 million in liquidity at the holding company and with an RBC ratio of 550-570%, Jackson remains committed to further product mix diversification of its annuities and to the delivery of another year of strong financial performance throughout 2024. CEO Laura Prieskorn emphasized the company's strength in distribution and capital generation, positioning Jackson to meet its financial targets and continue helping Americans achieve long-term financial security.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	Now	2029
Avg. P/E	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	0.9	0.6	3.5	4.2	4.0
Avg. Yld.	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	1.6%	6.2%	6.6%	3.5%	3.4%

The financial services provider trades at a forward P/E of 4.2, considerably higher than its three-year average P/E of 1.7. The increasing registered index-linked annuity and an uptick in annuity account value have benefitted the company in the near term, and the stock's P/E multiple has expanded in the last quarter. We maintain our estimated P/E multiple of 4.0, which we feel is a fair reflection of its overvaluation, suggesting a target price of $115 by 2029.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2029
Payout	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	1%	3%	23%	15%	14%

The company has paid a consistent dividend to its shareholders with a 3-year payout ratio averaging 9.3%, and we expect the company to maintain and increase its payout in the future. While the company is committed to returning capital to shareholders, achieving its 2024 target may be ambitious, given the current financial performance. However, the increase in RILA sales and growth in annuity account value indicates some positive momentum. Maintaining a healthy RBC ratio and strong liquidity should provide a buffer against potential financial challenges. Jackson Financial repurchased $90 million in common shares during Q2 2024, reflecting its commitment to returning capital to shareholders.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

While Jackson Financial runs a capital-intensive financial service business, increased annuity value will be a positive catalyst for EPS growth. Indeed, Jackson Financial's dividend growth prospects could remain strong throughout the mid-term. We maintain our buy rating for the stock premised upon the 10.9% annualized total returns for the medium-term, derived from the forecasted earnings-per-share growth of 9.0%, the 3.5% dividend yield, and a valuation headwind.
