Overview & Current Events

Oil-Dri Corporation (ODC) of America designs, produces, and markets sorbent products made from clay. Its absorbent goods include cat litter, floor products, animal toxin control agents, and agriculture chemical carriers. During the fiscal year 2022, the company employed 869 employees. The firm is divided into two business segments: Retail and Wholesale Products Group and Business to Business Products Group. Cat's Pride, Agsorb, Jonny Cat, Verge, Amlan, Ultra-Clear, and Pure-Flo are the brands under which the company's products are sold. The company serves several markets, including Pet Care, Fluids Purification, Industrial & Automotive, Animal Health & Nutrition, Agriculture & Horticulture, and Sports. On March 11th, 2025, Oil-Dri Corporation of America announced its results for Q2 of fiscal year 2025, posting non-GAAP EPS of $0.89 and revenues of $116.9 million, which were up 10.6% year-over-year.

Oil-Dri Corporation reported strong second-quarter fiscal 2025 results, achieving record-high Q2 net sales that were driven by growth across its fluids purification, animal health, and cat litter segments. Net income rose 4% to $12.9 million, while operating income climbed 15% to $17.5 million. The company's B2B Products Group led the way with a 20% revenue increase and a 30% surge in operating profit, fueled by heightened demand for Metal X and Metal Z purification products and a massive 82% revenue gain in its Amlan animal health business. Meanwhile, the Retail and Wholesale segment saw a 6% revenue increase, bolstered by the Ultra Pet acquisition and strong demand for Cat's Pride Antibacterial Clumping Litter, though operating income dipped 5% due to higher SG&A costs.

Oil-Dri's disciplined execution continues to pay off, marking its 15th consecutive quarter of year-over-year sales growth and 12th straight quarter of gross profit improvement. Gross margin for the quarter stood at 29.5%, slightly above last year's 29.3%, despite elevated costs tied to materials and freight. The company also used its robust operating cash flow to pay down the remaining balance on its credit facility and invest in infrastructure improvements. Looking ahead, management remains focused on sustainable growth and operational efficiency while reaffirming its long-term strategic vision.

Oil-Dri is a leader in developing and marketing sorbent products. The robust nature of the company's performance in a challenging macro-environment can be attributed to its products' quality and customer base. The company has diversified sources of revenue with a large customer base, and no customer accounts for more than 10% of the total sales in the Business to Business Products Group.

Comparing this year to last, the domestic cost of goods sold per ton increased by 11% due to higher freight and non-fuel manufacturing costs, which include large labor, repair, and asset replacement expenditures. ODC has successfully passed on the cost pressures to customers, but there is still a way to go until they reach pre-pandemic levels. Therefore, we maintain our forecast as the company is well-positioned to keep posting solid results and forecasting a 7.0% growth in EPS through 2030. In addition, the company will be able to grow its dividends at a healthy pace in the future, and we have assumed a dividend growth rate of 4.0% for the next five years.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	Now	2030
Avg. P/E	14.0	16.7	21.2	27.1	21.6	16.4	24.0	40.6	8.4	6.4	18.8	20.0
Avg. Yld.	2.7%	2.4%	2.2%	2.5%	3.0%	2.9%	3.0%	3.7%	2.2%	1.7%	1.3%	1.1%

Oil-Dri Corporation of America is trading at a forward P/E of 18.8, which is lower than the company's five-year average P/E of 38.3. Thus, we expect the multiple to expand, and we have used a P/E of 20.0 as our fair value target for the stock in 2030, suggesting a target price of $70.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Payout	51%	45%	61%	84%	58%	41%	68%	136%	27%	22%	25%	22%

Oil-Dri has continued to invest in organic growth opportunities, including lightweight cat litter, animal health, and agricultural products, which has continued to drive demand for the company’s products. The company is committed to providing returns to shareholders, and its five-year average payout ratio stands at 59%. The company also actively repurchases its shares from the market and spent $11.8 million on share purchases during 2022, $1.1 million in 2023, and $2.8 million in 2024.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Oil-Dri has continued to post solid results despite the challenging macro-environment and is on its way to improving margins to pre-pandemic levels. The betterment in margins could cause an expansion in the stock’s valuation. The global market for cat litter has expanded in recent years, and given the substantial brand value of the company’s products, we expect a healthy growth rate in the company’s revenue in the coming years. Following the strong bull run of the stock in 2023 and the decline in 2024, we assign a hold rating, premised upon the 9.4% annualized total returns for the medium-term, stemming from the forecasted earnings-per-share growth of 7.0%, the 1.3% dividend yield, and a valuation tailwind.
