Overview & Current Events

AvalonBay Communities (AVB) is a $30 billion multifamily REIT that owns a portfolio of several hundred apartment communities and is also an active developer of apartment communities. The trust's strategy consists of owning top-tier properties in the major metropolitan areas of New England, New York/New Jersey, Washington D.C., California, and the Pacific Northwest. It was formed by the 1998 merger of Avalon Properties with Bay Apartment Communities.

On April 30, 2025, AvalonBay Communities reported its financial results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2025. The company achieved earnings per share (EPS) of $1.66, marking a 36.1% increase from $1.22 in the same period of the previous year. Funds from operations (FFO) per share rose by 1.8% to $2.78, while Core FFO per share increased by 4.8% to $2.83. Same-store residential revenue grew by 3.0% to $693.1 million, and same-store net operating income (NOI) increased by 2.6% to $478.3 million, driven by higher occupancy and favorable expense management. During the quarter, AvalonBay commenced construction on two new apartment communities in Parker, CO, and Lake Park, FL, totaling 591 apartment homes and 10,000 square feet of commercial space, with an estimated total capital cost of $240 million. The company also expanded its presence in Texas by acquiring eight apartment communities, including two in the Austin metropolitan area for $187 million and six in the Dallas-Fort Worth area for $431.5 million. Additionally, AvalonBay sold properties in Wilton, CT, and Wood-Ridge, NJ, for a combined total of $226.6 million, marking its exit from the Connecticut market. The company amended its credit facility, increasing borrowing capacity to $2.5 billion and extending the term to April 2030, while also expanding its unsecured commercial paper program to $1 billion. AvalonBay reaffirmed its full-year 2025 financial outlook, projecting second-quarter EPS between $1.78 and $1.88, FFO per share between $2.69 and $2.79, and Core FFO per share between $2.72 and $2.82. Management expressed confidence in the company's strategic direction and operational performance, emphasizing its focus on portfolio optimization and expansion into high-growth markets.

Over the past decade, AvalonBay generated very impressive annualized Core FFO/share growth thanks to its growing scale and strong rental rate growth. However, this growth rate has slowed dramatically in recent years, coming in at 5.5% in 2017, 4.4% in 2018, and just 3.8% in 2019 before declining in 2020 and 2021 due to COVID-19. In 2022 FFO per share resumed growth as COVID-19 headwinds dissipated and 2025 is expected to see continued growth. Additional potential headwinds for AvalonBay are the threat of future rent control legislation in its West Coast markets (this has already been on the ballot in recent elections) as well as the uncertain economic climate in AvalonBay's target markets as a result of the fallout from COVID-19, including the growing work from home trend. Overall, we are projecting a 4.0% annualized growth rate over the next five years.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	Now	2030
P/FFO	24.2	21.8	20.7	19.2	23.3	19.0	29.2	17.2	16.8	21.5	18.1	18.0
Avg. Yld.	2.7%	3.0%	3.2%	3.4%	2.8%	3.9%	2.6%	3.8%	3.7%	2.9%	3.4%	3.5%

The P/FFO valuation multiple has varied between the high teens and the low 20s over the past decade, and the dividend yield has ranged between 2.6% and 3.9%. However, the abundant new supply reaching markets combined with increasing inflationary and rising interest rate pressures on margins - not to mention a challenging acquisition climate due to compressed cap rates – will lead to continued slowing growth relative to pre-COVID-19 levels. Therefore, the stock will warrant a lower valuation multiple and a higher dividend yield. We think the stock is fairly valued at present.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

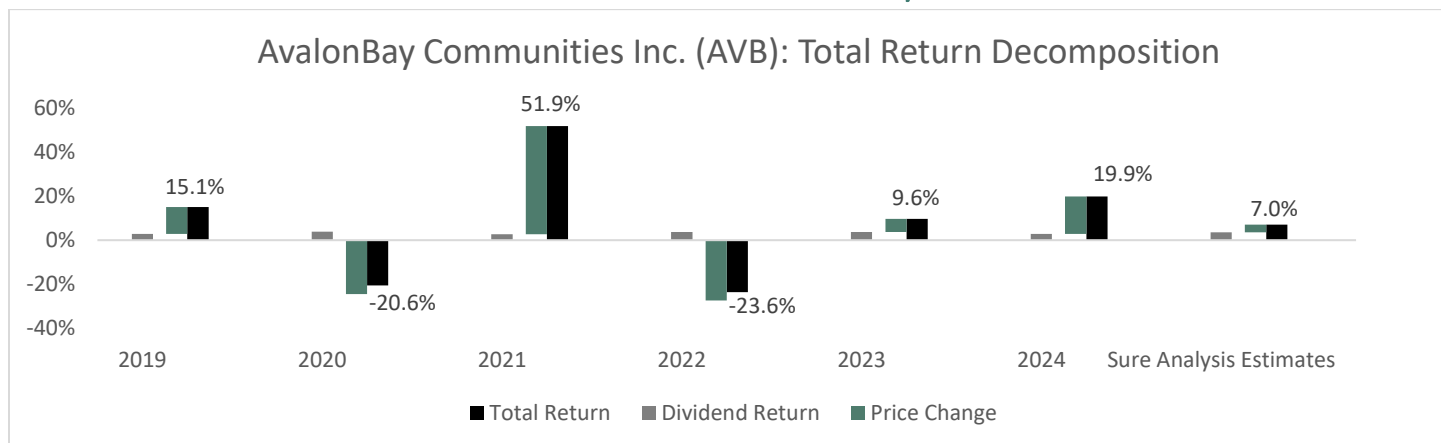

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Payout	66%	66%	66%	65%	65%	73%	77%	65%	62%	62%	61%	63%

AvalonBay significantly outperformed the S&P 500 during the Great Recession due to the defensive nature of the multifamily sector. However, it still experienced a sizable decline in FFO/share (from $4.61 in 2007 down to a low of $3.89 in 2009). Additionally, multifamily apartments lack a strong competitive advantage due to the ease of creating new supply, as well as the alternative sources of affordable housing in large metropolitan areas in which AvalonBay operates. Given that fact, AvalonBay's investments are essentially a bet on the economic strength of its core markets. Furthermore, the fact that most of its assets are high-quality "A" apartment units makes it even more levered to the state of the economy, as these apartments are in high demand during strong economic conditions but are less affordable during a recession. AVB does have considerable economies of scale, low cost of capital, operational and marketing expertise, and a brand name advantage, which enable it to compete effectively against competitors. The trust's balance sheet is also very strong, as its sector-leading A- credit rating makes clear. AvalonBay has plenty of resources to invest in its development projects and sustain the dividend during a downturn, while also reacting opportunistically to opportunities that may become available.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

AvalonBay has an excellent track record and a stellar balance sheet. AvalonBay appears slightly overvalued at the moment and is likely to deliver 7% annualized total returns moving forward. As a result, we rate it a Hold.
