Overview & Current Events

BancFirst Corp. (BANF) serves as the financial holding company for BancFirst, a state-chartered bank headquartered in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The company was founded in 1984, and the subsequent year merged with seven other bank holding companies based in Oklahoma. The company acquired other banks and bank holding companies for the next several years. BancFirst has 104 banking locations serving 59 communities throughout Oklahoma and has over 1,900 employees. BancFirst offers retail customers and small and mid-sized businesses various commercial banking services. This includes checking, savings, CDs, personal loans, and other services for retail customers. The bank offers business lending services for commercial customers, including agricultural and multi-family loans and various business banking services. The company has a $4.3 billion market capitalization.

On April 17th, 2025, BancFirst Corporation reported first-quarter results for Fiscal Year (FY)2025. BancFirst Corporation reported a net income of $56.1 million, or $1.67 per diluted share, for Q1 2025, up from $50.3 million, or $1.50 per diluted share, in Q1 2024. Net interest income increased to $115.9 million from $106.1 million, driven by higher loan volume and earning asset growth, with the net interest margin stable at 3.70%. The provision for credit losses dropped to $1.6 million from $4.0 million, while noninterest income rose to $49.0 million from $44.9 million, boosted by trust revenue, treasury income, sweep fees, and insurance commissions.

Noninterest expenses grew to $92.2 million from $82.8 million, including a $4.4 million charge for disposing of Volcker rule-prohibited equity investments and a $3.1 million increase in salaries. Total assets reached $14.0 billion, up $483.7 million, with loans at $8.1 billion and deposits at $12.1 billion. Sweep accounts rose to $5.5 billion, and stockholders' equity increased to $1.7 billion. Nonaccrual loans improved to 0.70% of total loans, with the credit loss allowance steady at 1.24%.

CEO David Harlow noted strong fundamentals but cautioned about market volatility and a potential economic slowdown, maintaining the credit loss reserve at 1.24%. Net charge-offs fell to $503,000 from $3.5 million in Q1 2024, reflecting better credit quality. BancFirst remains cautious amid economic uncertainties that could affect its regional operations.

Growth on a Per-Share Basis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030

BancFirst has grown EPS, averaging 13.3% per year over the past ten years and 17.4% over the past five years. However, going back to a more extended 15-year period to account for the prior recession, the bank has only grown earnings by an average of 6.1% per year. With the current interest environment, we expect EPS to grow at around a rate of 4% for the next five years, which is in line with its long-term earnings growth.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Avg. P/E	14.1	21.8	19.4	14.8	15.4	19.6	14.0	15.3	15.4	18.2	19.2	15.00
Avg. Yld.	2.4%	1.6%	1.6%	2.0%	2.0%	2.3%	2.0%	1.7%	1.7%	1.5%	1.4%	1.9%

BancFirst's P/E ratio has averaged 16.8x over the past ten years, with relatively little change from year to year. We feel that a multiple of 15.0x is fair for a company of this size with a low estimated growth rate and yield. Thus, the company looks overvalued based on the average PE with a current PE of 19.2x. The stock currently has a price-to-book (PB) ratio of 2.5, higher to its five-year average of 2.0.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Payout	33%	33%	29%	27%	31%	44%	28%	26%	26%	28%	28%	28%

BancFirst is a well-managed bank that has raised its dividend for 30 consecutive years and emerged from the global financial crisis relatively unscathed. Although earnings fell approximately 35% from their peak in 2007 to their bottom in 2009 and then took five years to surpass the 2007 peak, this was very healthy compared to many other banks in the country. At no point did earnings fall enough to put the dividend payout ratio above 50%. Today, the bank has a highly diversified asset base with commercial loans, real estate loans, and debt securities, maintaining compliance with banking regulations and capital reserve ratios. Oklahoma's banking industry is diversified, and the company does not have a significant competitive advantage over regional or national banks. However, well-run banks generally enjoy high switching costs, as depositors are unlikely to go through the hassle of switching banks in most scenarios. BancFirst has considerably outperformed the S&P 500 and all of the "Big Four" national banks over the past 25 years in total shareholder returns, indicating an above-average company culture and management team. David Rainbolt was the CEO for virtually all of this extended outperformance, but two years ago moved on to become the executive chairman. At the same time, David Harlow, former BancFirst president, is now the CEO.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

BancFirst is a small bank with a long stretch of consistent dividend growth, significant resilience through recessions, and history of considerably outperforming the broader banking industry and the stock market more generally. Interest rates and other factors outside their control may be a negative headwind as we advance. We expect a five-year annual rate of return of 0.7%. Thus, we rate BancFirst a hold at the current price because of the expected total return.
