Overview & Current Events

Kimco Realty is a real estate investment trust that owns, develops, manages and operates shopping centers. Kimco, in particular, specializes in open-air shopping centers. The trust was founded in 1973, is headquartered in New Hyde Park, NY, and currently trades with a market capitalization of about $14.8 billion.

On July 31, 2025, Kimco Realty Corporation reported its financial results for the second quarter of 2025. The company saw a 35% increase in net income, reaching $155.4 million or $0.23 per diluted share, compared to $111.8 million or $0.17 per diluted share in the same period last year, driven by higher rental revenues, gains on property sales, and increased financing income. Funds From Operations (FFO) grew 7.3% to $297.6 million or $0.44 per diluted share from $276.0 million or $0.41. Same Property Net Operating Income (NOI) rose 3.1%, supported by a 2.7% increase in minimum rents, with small shop occupancy hitting a record 92.2%.

The company signed 506 leases covering 2.7 million square feet, achieving a 15.2% blended pro-rata cash rent spread, and expanded its pipeline of near-term rent commencements to $66 million in Annual Base Rent. Grocery-anchored shopping centers now contribute a record 86% of ABR. Kimco sold a Home Depot-anchored property in Santa Ana, California for $49.5 million and raised its 2025 outlook, projecting net income of $0.74 to $0.76 per diluted share and FFO of $1.73 to $1.75. The company issued $500 million in senior unsecured notes, repurchased 3.0 million shares, and declared a $0.25 per common share quarterly dividend, payable on September 19, 2025. Liquidity stood at over $2.2 billion, with no consolidated debt maturing until July 2026.

As REITs have high non-cash expenses, primarily due to depreciation, their net earnings are usually relatively low and are therefore not reflective of the underlying earnings power and ability to generate cash flows. It thus makes sense to look at funds from operations, or FFO. Kimco Realty's FFOPS is substantially lower than before the financial crisis, but the trust has performed relatively well over the last couple of years. Kimco Realty should be able to grow its FFO through rent increases and rising operating income in the coming years as it has largely completed its portfolio repositioning program.

The underlying operating performance of Kimco Realty is strong, which is reflected in positive same-property NOI growth, and it owns high-quality assets in strong markets. The trust is not facing many problems due to e-commerce hurting sales at its properties so far as many of its tenants are relatively immune to e-commerce.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	Now	2030
P/FFO	17.3	18.8	13.5	9.9	13.7	9.0	18.6	13.9	11.0	15.6	12.3	12.0
Avg. Yld.	3.9%	3.6%	5.3%	7.8%	5.6%	5.1%	2.4%	4.2%	5.4%	4.0%	4.7%	5.2%

Kimco Realty trades for 12.3 times this year's expected funds from operations, which represents a fractional premium to our fair value estimate of 12 times funds from operations. During the majority of the last decade, Kimco traded at a higher valuation, but we believe it no longer warrants a mid-teens multiple due to the decline in growth opportunities in bricks-and-mortar retail as well as elevated interest rates at the moment.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Payout	67%	68%	71%	77%	76%	46%	44%	58%	59%	59%	58%	63%

Kimco was forced to temporarily suspend its dividend due to weak economic conditions but has since resumed raising its dividend. However, it remains below pre-pandemic levels.

Some mall REITs are under a lot of pressure due to declining traffic at the malls they own, which leads to lower occupancy rates and to lower rents at the same time. Kimco Realty's focus on outdoor shopping-centers has shielded the trust from such developments so far. Traffic at its properties is solid, and its tenant base is strong as well. Top tenants include Home Depot, TJX, Walmart, as well as many grocers. During the last financial crisis Kimco Realty did not remain profitable (using FFO), but during less severe recessions the trust would likely not be impacted significantly.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Kimco Realty is a retail REIT, but its shopping center focus provides some protection against the rise of e-commerce companies, and the underlying performance of Kimco's assets has been very solid in the recent past. Given that most e-commerce-sensitive tenants have largely been pruned from the portfolio, per-share FFO should begin to grow again. Overall, Kimco Realty earns a Hold rating from Sure Dividend as shares offer decent but not great 7.0% expected annualized total returns over the next half-decade due to expected multiple compression offsetting its mediocre per-share growth and fairly attractive dividend.
