Overview & Current Events

Kite Realty Group Trust is a full-service, vertically integrated real estate investment trust that owns mainly open-air community shopping centers across the United States. The trust has a diverse portfolio of community, neighborhood, and lifestyle centers. Kite Realty Group trades on the NYSE under the ticker symbol KRG and is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. The Trust has a market capitalization of $4.9 billion. Kite Realty Group Trust owns or has an interest in 181 operating retail properties comprising 29.8 million square feet.

On October 28th, 2024, Kite Realty declared a $0.27 quarterly distribution, which was 8.0% higher year-over-year.

Kite Realty Group reported second quarter 2025 results on July 30th, 2025. The trust reported core FFO of $113 million, or $0.50 per diluted common share compared to $112 million, or $0.50 per share in second quarter 2024. KRG's same-property net operating income (NOI) rose by 3.3%.

During the quarter, the trust executed 170 new and renewal leases, totaling 1.2M square feet. Annualized base rent (ABR) per square foot for the retail portfolio rose 5.4% year-over-year to $22.02. Its economic occupancy percentage of 90.3% was a moderate decline over the prior year quarter's 91.6%. KRG's net debt-to-Adjusted EBITDA ratio was 5.1X at quarter-end.

Kite Realty entered into a JV with GIC which acquired Legacy West, a mixed-use asset in Plano, Texas. The purchase price was $785 million, of which KRG contributed $408 million for 52% majority interest. It then entered into a second JV with GIC, contributing three larger-format shopping centers in Texas and Florida. This earned Kite Realty $112 million of gross proceeds, and will see it maintaining 52% ownership interest.

Leadership increased its fiscal 2025 guidance and now sees core FFO coming in between $2.02 to $2.06 per share.

Kite Realty has generated positive long-term adjusted funds from operations growth, but the nine year AFFO per share growth has been muted, partly due to the impact of the pandemic and higher interest expense as a result of higher interest rates. Over the last nine and five years, KRG has generated AFFO per share growth of 0.4% and 4.5% annually, respectively. We estimate that KRG can produce 4.0% annual AFFO per share growth over the next five years.

Kite Realty will grow by expanding its number of retail properties, the number of states and markets it operates in, and by boosting its properties' annualized base rent per square foot. The trust will use available cash flow, targeted asset recycling, equity, and debt capital to opportunistically acquire more retail properties and redevelop existing properties with high investment returns. The trust will grow revenue from operating properties by leasing and re-leasing to strong and diverse retail tenants at increasing rental rates. It may also pursue strategic joint ventures, such as its recent JV with GIC.

The merger with Retail Properties of America Inc. has seen the size and breadth of the trust grow massively. It also increased KRG's geographic footprint in high-growth markets, and enhanced growth opportunities through strong active development projects.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	Now	2030
Avg. P/AFFO	13.4	13.0	10.0	8.0	9.8	9.7	13.5	10.6	10.6	11.4	10.6	11.2
Avg. Yld.	4.0%	4.2%	5.8%	7.8%	7.9%	9.1%	2.9%	3.6%	4.3%	4.2%	5.0%	4.7%

The current P/AFFO of 10.6 is below the ten- and five-year average valuations of 11.0- and 11.2-times AFFO. Given the pandemic and transition to online shopping has exacerbated challenges in the retail brick and mortar space, we peg fair value for KRG stock at 11.2 times AFFO, which implies the potential for a small valuation tailwind.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Payout	54%	55%	59%	64%	69%	35%	45%	42%	47%	50%	53%	53%

Kite Realty Group slashed its dividend in 2019 after a series of increases, and then further slashed it amidst the COVID pandemic in 2020. As a result, in recent years, the payout ratio was fairly covered, but investors cannot expect KRG to consistently increase dividends. During the great recession, Kite Realty Group suffered massively as did most real estate related companies. The great recession saw KRG's peak dividend of $3.28 in 2008 fall more than 66% to $0.96 in 2010. The trust does not possess any strong competitive advantage, but it's open air centers held up slightly better than crowded malls given the nature of the pandemic.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Kite Realty Group has merged with Retail Properties of America, which has seen the scale of the company expand, and it has now established a joint venture with GIC. The share price of Kite Realty Group has declined 14% in the last twelve months. It could now offer annualized total returns of 9.5% over the next five years, stemming from 4.0% annual AFFO per share growth, the 5.0% starting yield, and 1.2% multiple expansion. KRG earns a hold rating.
