Overview & Current Events

Preferred Bank (PFBC) is a regional commercial bank serving businesses and individuals across California, New York, and Texas. Headquartered in Los Angeles and founded in 1991, the bank operates twelve branches in California, plus locations in Flushing and Sugar Land. Preferred Bank specializes in commercial real estate, trade finance, and business lending, while also offering a full range of personal and treasury management services. As of September 30th, 2025, Preferred Bank had total assets of $7.47 billion and employed approximately 270 full-time staff.

On October 20th, 2025, Preferred Bank announced its financial results for the third quarter ended September 30th, 2025. The bank reported net income of $35.9 million, up from $32.8 million in Q2 2025 and $33.4 million in Q3 2024, primarily reflecting changes in net interest income and lower interest expense. Diluted earnings per share (EPS) for the quarter came in at $2.84, compared to $2.57 in Q2 2025 and $2.46 in the prior year period.

Net interest income totaled $71.3 million for the quarter, up from $66.9 million in Q2, driven by both loan and investment growth despite continued deposit cost pressures. The bank's net interest margin (NIM) improved to 3.92%, compared to 3.85% in Q2 2025, though still down from 4.10% in Q3 2024, reflecting the challenging rate environment. Total loans grew to $5.87 billion, a 2.3% increase on a linked-quarter basis, while total deposits rose to $6.23 billion, up from $6.08 billion in Q2 2025. Preferred Bank's capital position remained solid, with a Tier 1 leverage ratio of 10.66% and a total capital ratio of 14.56%, both modestly higher than the prior quarter and comfortably exceeding regulatory requirements.

Noninterest income for Q3 2025 totaled $3.7 million, compared to $3.8 million in Q2, with lower gain on loan sales partially offset by stronger LC fees. Noninterest expenses declined to $21.5 million, down from $22.4 million in Q2, driven by lower OREO-related charges and stable compensation costs. However, expenses were lower on a year-over-year basis due to a $1.7 million write-down in the same quarter last year. Total assets reached $7.47 billion at quarter-end, up from $7.28 billion in Q2 2025, reflecting continued growth in both loans and securities.

Preferred Bank's 2025 strategy centers on preserving profitability, maintaining strong credit quality, and enhancing shareholder returns. The bank anticipates moderate loan growth, while deposit balances may remain under pressure. With a solid Tier 1 leverage ratio of 10.66% and strong pre-provision earnings, Preferred Bank is well-capitalized to navigate market shifts. The bank remains committed to delivering stable results and has raised its dividend for five consecutive years.

Preferred Bank (PFBC)

Updated October 26th, 2025, by Sure Dividend Analyst

The company has grown earnings by 18.2% per year in the last decade and 17.5% over the past five years. We expect earnings to grow on average by 4% per year for the next five years. The company has been able to increase its dividend for 5 consecutive years. Over the last five years, the average annual dividend growth rate is 20.1%. In December 2024, the company increased its quarterly dividend by 7.1% from $0.70 to $0.75 per share. In Q3 2025, Preferred Bank repurchased 70,842 shares for a total of $6.3 million at an average price of approximately $88.91.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	Now	2030
Avg. P/E	15.8	23.1	18.7	11.0	11.9	11.1	12.0	9.6	6.9	8.7	9.0	11.0
Avg. Yld.	1.4%	1.1%	1.3%	2.2%	2.0%	2.4%	2.0%	2.3%	3.0%	3.2%	3.2%	3.0%

During the past decade shares of Preferred Bank have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 12.9 and today, it stands at 9.0. We are using 11 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation tailwind. The company’s dividend yield is currently 3.2% which is above the average yield of 2.1% over the past decade.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Payout	24%	25%	27%	22%	23%	26%	24%	21%	22%	29%	29%	33%

During the past five years, the company’s dividend payout ratio has averaged around 24%. Preferred Bank’s dividend is comfortably covered by earnings. Given the expected earnings growth, there is room for the dividend to continue to grow at least at the same pace and keep the payout ratio around the same levels which is safe.

Preferred Bank is a well-capitalized regional bank with above-peer profitability, strong asset quality, and industry-leading efficiency. The bank reported a net interest margin of 3.92% in Q3 2025, up from 3.85% in Q2 2025 but down from 4.10% a year earlier, reflecting ongoing deposit pricing pressure despite efforts to reduce asset sensitivity. Loan growth remained positive with total loans rising 2.3% quarter-over-quarter, while deposit balances rose 2.5%, highlighting a still competitive but stabilizing funding environment. Preferred Bank’s strong capital base, conservative credit culture, and prudent expense management provide a solid foundation, but sustaining profitability in a potentially lower rate environment will depend on managing margin pressure, growing fee-based income, and maintaining disciplined cost control and operational efficiency, as reflected in the improved efficiency ratio of 28.7%

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Preferred Bank is a commercially focused regional bank recognized for its above-peer profitability, exceptional efficiency, and strong credit management. Balancing margin stability, expanding fee income, and preserving credit quality will be essential for sustained success as the bank navigates a potentially lower rate environment in late 2025 and into 2026. We estimate total return potential of 11.1% per year for the stock over the next five years based on a 4% earnings-per-share growth, the dividend yield of 3.2%, and a valuation tailwind. Shares earn a hold rating.
