Overview & Current Events

Comcast is a media, entertainment and communications company. As of Q1 2023, Comcast began reporting in 2 key business segments: Connectivity & Platforms (Residential Connectivity & Platforms and Business Services Connectivity), and Content & Experiences (Media, Studios, Theme Parks). Comcast was founded in 1963 and is headquartered in Philadelphia, PA.

Comcast reported its Q3 2025 results on 10/30/2025. Revenue fell 2.7% year over year to $31.2 billion, operating income fell 5.5% to $5.5 billion, adjusted earnings fell 4.9% to $4.1 billion, while adjusted earnings-per-share (EPS) was flat at $1.12. Adjusted EBITDA (a cash flow proxy) remained resilient, falling 0.7% to $9.7 billion and free cash flow came in at $4.9 billion.

The Connectivity & Platforms segment's revenues fell by 1.4% to $20.2 billion. The segment's adjusted EBITDA fell 3.7% to $8.0 billion. The Content & Experiences segment's revenue dropped by 6.8% to $11.7 billion, primarily due to stronger results last year due to the Olympics, while its adjusted EBITDA rose 8.4% to $2.0 billion. For the quarter, Comcast repurchased $1.2 billion worth of common stock at an average price of $26.09 per share, reducing its shares outstanding by 5% versus a year ago.

Year-to-date, revenue fell marginally by 0.5% to $91.4 billion and operating income fell 6.1% to $17.2 billion. Adjusted earnings dropped by 2.5% to $12.9 billion and adjusted EPS rose 2.6% to $3.46. Adjusted EBITDA rose marginally by 0.8% to $29.5 billion and free cash flow was $14.9 billion. In this period, Comcast repurchased $4.9 billion worth of common stock at ~$32.34 per share. We maintain our 2025 EPS estimate at $4.29.

Comcast generates substantial cash flow. From 2021 to 2024, it allocated just over 50% of its operating cash flow for capital spending in the long-term growth of the business, which left ample free cash flow to cover the dividend. Capital spending was approximately 55% of operating cash flow in 2024. For example, Comcast built a new theme park, Epic Universe, which opened this year in Orlando, Florida.

From 2015 to 2024, Comcast increased its EPS at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.5%. The past five years saw a CAGR of 6.7%. Comcast resumed share buybacks in late Q2 2021 after the business recovered from negative COVID impacts. To be more conservative, we estimate EPS and DPS growth of 5.5% per year through 2030.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	Now	2030
Avg. P/E	17.8	28.1	40.6	21.2	19.9	16.9	18.8	11.5	10.9	10.0	6.5	8.5
Avg. Yld.	3.3%	3.1%	3.1%	2.9%	3.1%	2.2%	1.8%	2.6%	2.8%	2.9%	4.8%	3.6%

While Comcast was growth stock during the 2010s, over the last few years, it has changed into an income stock. Accordingly, its P/E multiple has contracted. It now trades at a P/E of 6.5 based on our 2025 estimated earnings. Although its average P/E between 2020 and 2024 was 13.6, we think a target P/E of about 8.5 makes more sense due to increasing competition and a changing landscape for the business. So, Comcast stock appears to trade at a discount today.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Payout	31%	32%	30%	30%	27%	35%	31%	29%	29%	29%	31%	31%

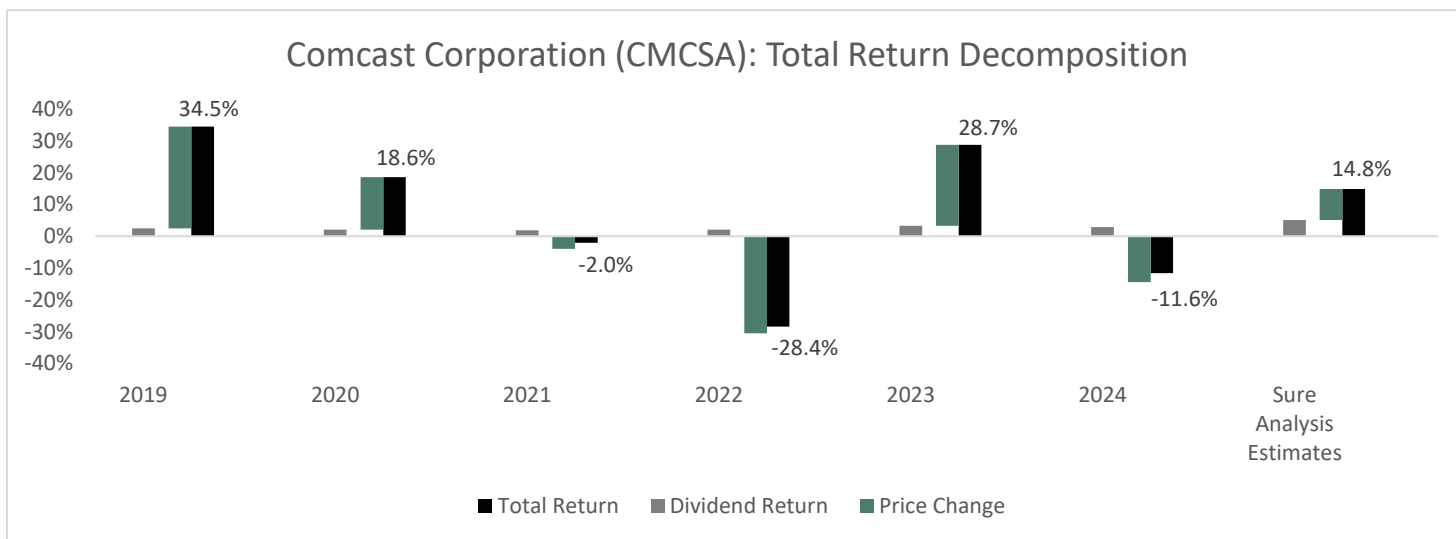

Comcast has had 17 consecutive years of dividend increases through two recessions. Its 15-year compounded dividend growth rate was 14%. This fast dividend growth was made possible through solid earnings growth and the firm's conservative dividend payout ratio. Its dividend is well-covered by earnings and cash flows. Comcast is one of the largest players in the entertainment industry.

New market entrants would have to spend many billions of dollars to establish themselves as a key cable player or entertainment network. The cable industry is impacted by the nationwide cord-cutting trend, though, as some customers are ditching traditional pay-TV entirely. Its consolidated business should be resilient with continued profitability and cash flow generation. Comcast's balance sheet remains solid with an S&P credit rating of A-.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Comcast has a leveraged balance sheet, and its operations will likely remain challenged going into next year. The market's pessimism has led to a discounted valuation. We believe Comcast has multi-year turnaround potential. We expect EPS growth to be 5.5% per year. Adding a dividend yield of 4.8% and a valuation expansion of 5.6%, we think Comcast can deliver total returns of 14.8% per year through 2030. Sure Dividend rates Comcast shares as a potential buy for long-term investors with a high-risk tolerance.
