Overview & Current Events

Group 1 Automotive, Inc., founded in 1997 and headquartered in Houston, Texas, is a leading global automotive retailer. The company operates over 263 dealerships and 44 collision centers across the U.S. and U.K., offering new and used vehicle sales, financing, maintenance, repair services, and parts. With more than 13,000 employees, Group 1 Automotive is a Fortune 250 company and the fourth-largest automotive retailer in the United States. It has a market capitalization of approximately $4.9 billion and maintains a consistent dividend history, most recently declaring a quarterly dividend of $0.50 per share, reflecting a steady dividend growth history of 5 years.

On October 28th, 2025, the company announced third-quarter results. The company reported Q3 2025 revenues of $5.78 billion, up 10.8% year-over-year and exceeding estimates by $111.8 million. Adjusted diluted EPS came in at $10.45, a 5.6% increase from the prior year, though GAAP EPS from continuing operations was $1.02, down from $8.68, primarily due to $123.9 million in U.K. goodwill and asset impairment charges. Net income from continuing operations totaled $13.1 million, while adjusted net income rose modestly to $135.1 million. Record revenues were driven by strong performance in used vehicle sales, parts and service, and finance & insurance (F&I) operations.

U.S. operations remained robust, with growth across new and used vehicle sales, aftersales, and F&I, highlighted by the addition of a Mercedes-Benz dealership in Georgia. New vehicle retail sales reached 57,269 units (+6.5% YoY), and used vehicle retail sales totaled 59,574 units (+6.6% YoY). Parts and service gross profit rose 11.1% to $407.6 million, while F&I revenue increased 12.5% to $240.9 million, supporting overall profitability despite slightly lower per-unit gross profits in both new and used vehicles.

The U.K. market continued to face challenges, including lower volumes, BEV-related margin pressure, and higher costs. The company recorded $123.9 million in impairment charges and $1.6 million in restructuring charges during the quarter, with additional restructuring expected. Corporate development remained active, with one dealership acquired this quarter, bringing total YTD acquisitions to $640 million in expected annual revenue. Group 1 also repurchased 185,788 shares for $82.5 million, leaving $226.3 million remaining under its share repurchase program. The company expects U.S. growth to remain strong while U.K. portfolio optimization improves efficiency and long-term profitability.

The company has shown strong growth, with EPS rising from $6.87 in 2015 to an estimated $42.34 in 2025, driven by acquisitions, same-store revenue gains, margin improvements, and share repurchases that reduced outstanding shares from 23.2 million to 13 million. Strategic initiatives, such as the 2024 purchase of Inchcape UK's retail operations, have bolstered revenue and profitability.

Group 1 Automotive Inc. (GPI)

Updated November 17th, 2025 by Felix Martinez

Looking ahead, the company is expected to grow EPS at a 6.5% annual rate over the next five years, supported by continued acquisitions, operational efficiencies, and a stable dividend policy, which increased from $0.83 per share in 2015 to $2.00 in 2025. Group 1’s history of revenue growth, margin enhancement, and capital returns positions it well for sustained long-term growth.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Avg. P/E	11.0	10.5	9.2	5.9	9.2	7.3	5.7	4.0	6.9	10.8	9.1	12.00
Avg. Yld.	1.1%	1.2%	1.4%	2.0%	1.1%	0.5%	0.7%	0.8%	0.6%	0.5%	0.5%	0.6%

Over the past decade, GPI has averaged a P/E ratio of 8.0x. Over the past five years, the company's average P/E is 6.9x. It has been as low as 4.0x in 2022 and as high as 11x in 2015. We think a fair value multiple estimates to 12x earnings is fair for this company because of the expected earnings growth over the next five years.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030
Payout	12%	12%	13%	12%	10%	3%	4%	3%	4%	5%	5%	7%

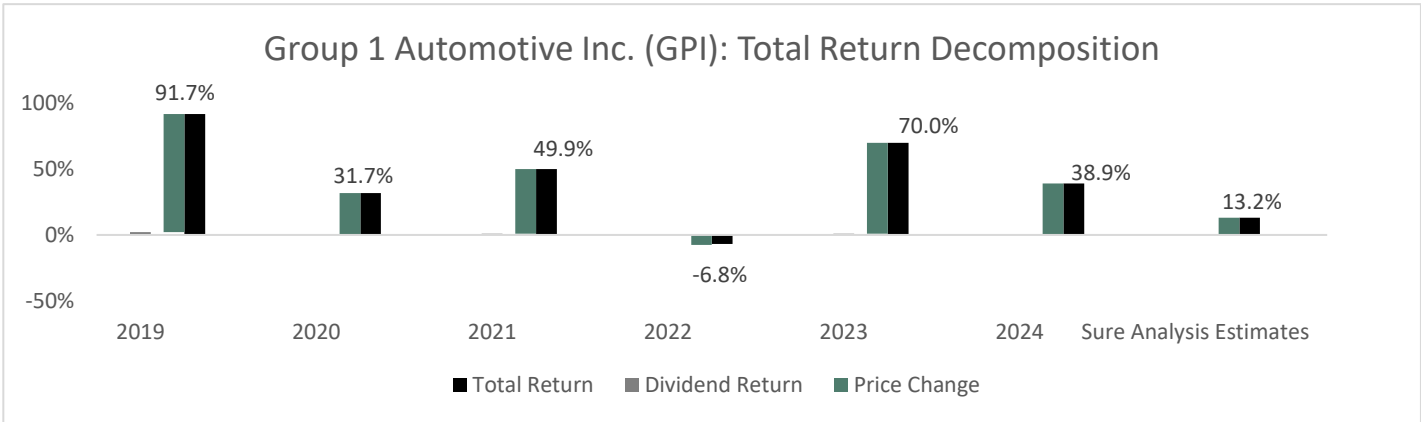

The company has a competitive advantage through its large dealership network, diversified brand mix, and strong aftersales services, which provide stable revenue and reduce reliance on any single manufacturer. These factors give the company a resilient market position and recurring profits from parts and service.

The company has weathered major downturns, including the 2008–2010 recession, by cutting costs and improving efficiency. It carries $5.47 billion in debt against $3.14 billion in equity, with an interest coverage ratio of 2.8, showing it can comfortably meet obligations. With a low dividend payout ratio of 5%, Group 1 prioritizes reinvestment and balance sheet strength, supporting sustainable growth.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Based on current valuation and growth outlook, GPI offers an estimated total return potential of 13.2% annually over the next five years, driven by modest EPS growth of 6.5%, a dividend yield of 0.5%, and slight potential for valuation multiple expansion. The company’s financial position is solid, with manageable leverage and strong cash flow, though its cyclical exposure to the automotive retail industry adds moderate risk. Given that the stock trades under fair value with a little margin of safety. However, it is viewed as a Hold. The company has a stable growth and disciplined capital allocation.
