Overview & Current Events

Somnigroup International Inc. (SGI), founded through the 2012 Tempur-Pedic and Sealy merger and rebranded in 2025 after acquiring Mattress Firm, is a leading global bedding company based in Lexington, Kentucky. With a market cap near $15 billion and around 12,000 employees, SGI generates over $5 billion in annual revenue. It operates through Tempur Sealy North America, International, and Mattress Firm segments. SGI pays a quarterly dividend of $0.15 per share and has grown its dividend for five consecutive years. Its broad retail and wholesale channels span more than 100 countries, combining legacy brands with strong omnichannel reach.

On November 6th, 2025, the company announced results for the third quarter of 2025. The company reported Q3 non-GAAP EPS of $0.95, beating analysts' estimates by $0.09.

Somnigroup International posted a standout third quarter, driven by the full impact of the Mattress Firm acquisition and improving industry trends. Consolidated net sales surged 63% year over year to $2.12 billion, reflecting the addition of $1.07 billion in Mattress Firm revenue and a sharp shift toward direct-to-consumer channels, which now represent more than 65% of sales. Profitability followed suit. Gross margin expanded to 44.9%, while operating income climbed 56% to $315 million as early sales and cost synergies began to show through. Net income rose 37% to $177 million, translating into EPS growth of nearly 14% and adjusted EPS growth of 16%, a solid outcome given ongoing portfolio changes.

Cash generation was another bright spot. SGI delivered a record $408 million in operating cash flow during the quarter, strengthening an already improving balance sheet as leverage stood at a manageable 3.28x trailing EBITDA. Segment performance was mixed but encouraging overall: Mattress Firm contributed meaningful scale and margins, Tempur Sealy North America saw margin expansion despite accounting-related sales eliminations, and international operations delivered double-digit sales growth on an underlying basis.

Somnigroup's five-year growth looks solid, with revenue expected to climb 8% to 12% annually, boosted by Mattress Firm's integration and global expansion. Margins should improve modestly as scale efficiencies kick in. Despite recent share dilution, strong free cash flow supports steady dividends and likely buybacks.

We expect the company to post EPS of $2.70 in 2025, which is the midpoint of analysts' estimates. Also, we expect annual EPS growth of 10.0% over the next five years, leading to our estimated EPS of $4.34 by 2030. Moreover, the company has a growing record of paying dividends despite operating in a competitive healthcare sector, the company

Valuation Analysis

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	Now	2030
Avg. P/E	61.09	19.86	21.55	28.34	14.25	10.17	6.12	15.15	13.78	18.63	33.4	20.0

The stock trades at a forward P/E of 33.4, higher than both the long-term average P/E of 20.9 and the five-year average P/E of 12.8. Even though the rapid sales growth will benefit the company in the near term, we assign a P/E of 20.0 to the stock, which we feel is a fair reflection of its value. Accordingly, with expected EPS of $4.34 and P/E target of 20.0, our target price for the stock stands at $87 by 2030.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2030

SGI’s resiliency stems from its strong brand portfolio, diversified global channels, and scale that cushion it against economic swings. While bedding demand can soften during recessions, the company’s broad product mix, from premium mattresses to value options, helps capture shifting consumer budgets. During the Great Recession, its legacy brands weathered the downturn better than many discretionary peers, and SGI’s recent expansion further spreads risk across markets. Though leverage increased post-acquisition, healthy free cash flow and reasonable interest coverage provide a solid buffer.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

While Somnigroup International runs a competitive bedding and sleep products business, successful integration and cost synergies from its Mattress Firm acquisition could further boost EPS growth. Indeed, SGI’s healthy cash flow and disciplined payout ratio suggest its dividend growth prospects could stay solid for many years to come. Thus, we rate SGI as a hold rating premised upon the 0.1% annualized total returns for the long-term, derived from the forecasted earnings-per-share growth of 10.0%, the 0.7% dividend yield, and a valuation headwind.
