Overview & Current Events

Stock Yards Bancorp, Inc. (SYBT), with $9.54 billion in assets, is the bank holding company for Stock Yards Bank & Trust Company which provides various financial services for individuals, corporations, and others in the United States. It operates in two segments: Commercial Banking, and Wealth Management & Trust (WMT). Its banking services include loan and deposit services, cash management services, securities brokerage activities, mortgage origination, and others. In addition to its banking operations, Stock Yards Bancorp's Wealth Management and Trust Group has $7.64 billion in assets under management. The Commercial Banking segment remains the primary driver of the company's income. Stock Yards Bancorp was founded in 1904 and has about 1,140 employees.

On January 27th, 2026, Stock Yards Bancorp released fourth quarter results for the period ending December 31st, 2025. For the quarter, the company reported record net income of $36.6 million, or $1.24 per diluted share, compared to a net income of $31.7 million, or $1.07 per diluted share, for the fourth quarter of 2024.

The results were driven by loan growth of $521 million, or 8%, year-over-year, and stable asset quality, with non-performing loans at 0.19% of total loans. Net interest income was $79.3 million, up 13% from the previous year, with net interest margin at 3.57%, reflecting a 13-basis point improvement year-over-year and an increase of 1 basis point compared to the third quarter of 2025. Wealth Management & Trust continued to be a key strategic pillar, contributing 44% of non-interest income in the quarter and underscoring the company's fee income diversification.

Non-interest income increased by 7% to $25.1 million, driven by growth in wealth management, treasury management, and brokerage revenue. WM&T income rose to $11.0 million, up 6% year-over-year. Non-interest expenses increased by 6% to $54.8 million, driven primarily by higher compensation, benefits, and occupancy expenses. The bank continues to be "well-capitalized," with a tangible common equity ratio of 9.32%, compared to 8.44% a year ago, reflecting a strong financial position.

For the full year 2025, diluted EPS was $4.75, representing a 22% increase compared to $3.89 in 2024.

Management anticipates further net interest margin performance to remain steady in 2026, supported by continued, though moderating, loan growth and stable asset yields, while overall loan growth is expected to normalize to historical levels. Management also expressed optimism for Wealth Management & Trust performance, citing contributions from recent key hires and net new business growth. The bank remains focused on organic growth, expanding its footprint into Bardstown (KY) and Liberty Township (OH), and building full client relationships within the commercial banking segment.

During the past decade shares of Stock Yards Bancorp have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 16.7 times earnings and today, it stands at 13.7. We are using 17 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation tailwind. The company’s dividend yield is currently 1.9%, which is below the average yield of 2.3% over the past decade.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2026	2031
Payout	40%	48%	40%	36%	42%	37%	36%	32%	31%	27%	26%	24%

During the past five years, the company’s dividend payout ratio has averaged around 32.5%. The bank’s dividend is comfortably covered by earnings. Given the expected earnings growth, there is room for the dividend to continue to grow at the same pace and keep the payout ratio around the same levels which is safe.

One of the key aspects of Stock Yards Bancorp, Inc.'s business model is its focus on full relationship banking in the commercial banking segment. The company's goal is to establish long-term relationships with commercial clients, providing tailored financial services to meet their needs. It emphasizes operational efficiency and organic growth in large, mature markets, complemented by acquisitions. In 2021, the company acquired Kentucky Bancshares, followed by Commonwealth Bancshares in 2022. In January 2026, Stock Yards announced the acquisition of Field & Main Bancorp, expanding into Western Kentucky and increasing pro forma assets to $10.4 billion and wealth assets to $8.4 billion. Over the past 35 years, the company has increased EPS in 31 of those years, with exceptions during the 2008–09 recession, 2017 tax reform, and the 2020 pandemic. In December 2025, Stock Yards was named a Piper Sandler “Sm-All Star” for the seventh time, recognizing its performance among top small-cap banks.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Stock Yards Bancorp, Inc. is a community bank with a focus on Commercial Banking and Wealth Management & Trust services that have built a reputation for financial strength and community involvement. This has resulted in a solid EPS growth track record combined with 17 consecutive years of dividend growth. We estimate total return potential of 12.1% per year for the next five years based on a 6% earnings-per-share growth, a 1.9% yield, and a valuation tailwind. Shares earn a hold rating due to a mediocre dividend risk score.
