Overview & Current Events

Service Corp International is a personal services company that provides funeral and cemetery services and products from its locations throughout the United States and Canada. The company segments its operations into funeral service and cemetery business functions. The company provides all professional services, facilities, vehicles, and merchandise related to funerals and cremations at its funeral service locations. Cemetery locations provide customers with cemetery property, memorial markers, and graveyard services. The company derives much of its revenue from its funeral locations, while the cemetery division also generates a meaningful amount of the company's total income. The company trades under the ticker symbol SCI with a market capitalization of $11.1 billion and total revenue of $3.9 billion in 2025. The company currently has fifteen consecutive years of dividend growth.

On February 11th, 2026, the company reported its fourth quarter financial results. The company reported Q4 2025 revenue of $1.11 billion, up 1.7% year over year, while diluted EPS was $1.13 and adjusted EPS reached $1.14, an 8% increase from $1.06 in the prior year. Net income rose to $159.4 million from $151.4 million in Q4 2024, supported by higher funeral and cemetery segment revenue. For the full year, revenue increased 3% to $4.31 billion and adjusted EPS grew 9% to $3.85.

Profitability improved modestly as operating income increased to $275.6 million from $262.2 million in the prior-year quarter. Growth was driven by 3% higher average funeral revenue per service and 11% growth in preneed funeral sales production, while preneed cemetery sales production increased 2%. The company also generated $966 million in adjusted operating cash flow in 2025, supporting continued investment and shareholder returns.

Looking ahead, management expects 2026 adjusted EPS of $4.05–$4.35, implying approximately 8%–12% growth. The company projects $1.01–$1.07 billion in operating cash flow and plans about $325 million in maintenance and development capital expenditures, as it continues expanding funeral home locations and cemetery property while returning capital through dividends and share repurchases.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2026	2031
Avg. P/E	22.0	24.1	22.2	24.3	16.9	15.5	18.2	19.7	22.6	20.0	18.9	20.0
Avg. Yld.	1.8%	1.6%	1.7%	1.6%	1.6%	1.2%	1.5%	1.6%	1.5%	1.7%	1.7%	1.7%

The company looks undervalued at the current price point. Over the past ten years, the company has averaged a PE of 20.5x. We think that a PE of 20x is fair. At the current price, the company now sports a PE of 18.9x. The current dividend yield of 1.7% is higher than its ten-year average of 1.6%. Thus, the company looks fairly valued based on dividend yield.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2026	2031
Payout	40%	37%	38%	38%	27%	19%	27%	32%	34%	34%	33%	35%

Service Corporation International's competitive advantage is that it is the most prominent funeral home/cemetery operator in North America. This benefits the company because it can operate more efficiently. This also allows the company to take advantage of the funeral home/cemetery market. The top three companies have only 15% of the total market share in the funeral home/cemetery market. Thus, this leaves plenty of room for industry consolidation, which Service Corporation should be able to take advantage of.

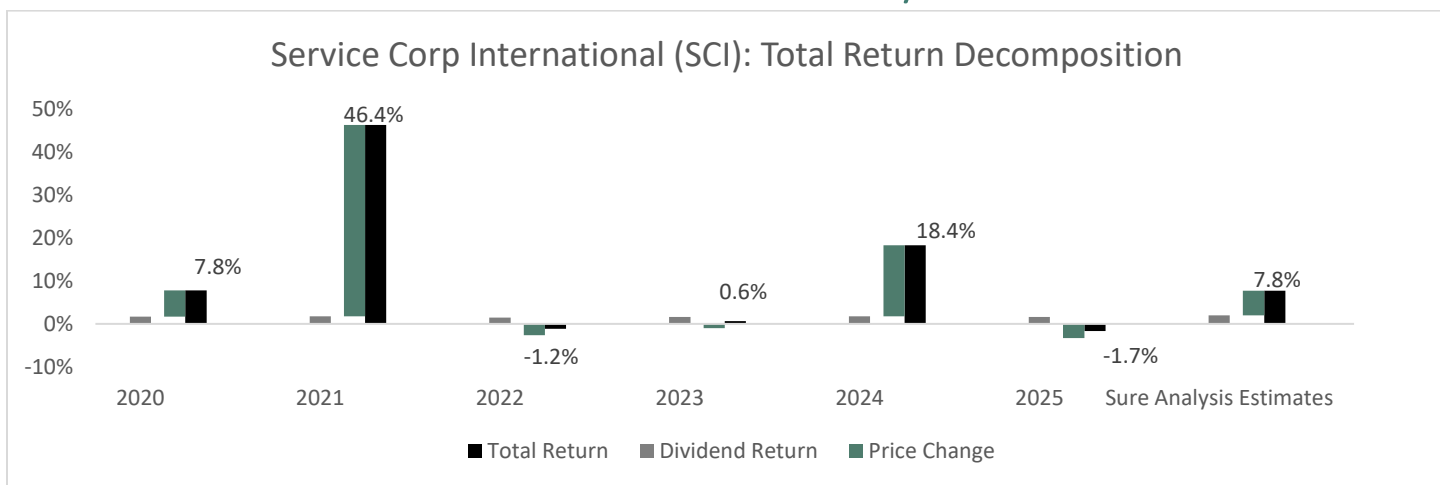

During the Great Recession, the company did well. Earnings were flat in 2008 and only decreased by 2% in 2009. However, the company stock price did plunge 75% through that period. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the company did very well. Earnings grew 53% in 2020 and 57% in 2021. Thus, the company is very resilient to a recession.

The company balance sheet looks alright. The company has an S&P credit rating of BB+, which is not an investment grade. Also, the company currently has a debt-to-equity ratio of 3.1x, which is a little on the high side. However, interest coverage is satisfactory at 3.9x.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Service Corp International is a company that goes under the radar for most investors. The company is a solid business that should continue to do well over the long term. We expect the company to generate a 7.8% annualized total return over the next five years. This will mostly come from earnings growth. Thus, we rate the stock as a hold today.
