Citizens Financial Services has mostly seen periods of growth over the last decade as EPS has a compound annual growth rate of nearly 9% for the period. However, this slows to less than 3% over the last five years. While earnings-per-share growth was solid during the first part of the last decade, results tumbled in 2023, though the company did establish a new high for EPS in 2025. We have an annual target EPS growth rate of 2% through 2031.

Citizens Financial Services has raised its dividend for five consecutive years. The dividend was cut in 2020 during the worst of the Covid-19 pandemic. Growth returned the next year, but the annual amount has not yet reached pre-pandemic levels. Even with the cut, the dividend growth rate is 3.3% over the last decade, though this slows to 2.0% when looking at the last five years. We forecast that dividend growth will mirror earnings growth over the next five years.

Valuation Analysis

| Year      | 2016 | 2017 | 2018 | 2019 | 2020 | 2021 | 2022 | 2023 | 2024 | 2025 | Now  | 2031 |
|-----------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|------|
| Avg. P/E  | 13.9 | 17.7 | 10.8 | 10.8 | 7.9  | 8.1  | 10.4 | 8.8  | 10.9 | 7.5  | 7.9  | 9.0  |
| Avg. Yld. | 3.2% | 2.7% | 3.9% | 1.6% | 2.9% | 2.2% | 2.3% | 2.4% | 3.0% | 2.0% | 3.1% | 2.7% |

Shares of Citizens Financial Services have gained $5, or 8.3%, since our March 23rd, 2026 update. The stock has a 10- and five-year average price-to-earnings ratios of 10.7 and 9.1, respectively, as shares have mostly stayed around this range. We have a target price-to-earnings ratio of 9. With shares trading at 7.9x expected EPS for 2026, this implies a tailwind from multiple expansion. Reaching our target P/E by 2031 would add 2.6% to annual returns.

Citizens Financial Services yields 3.1% at current levels, which compares favorably to the long-term average yield of 2.6%.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

| Year   | 2016 | 2017 | 2018 | 2019 | 2020 | 2021 | 2022 | 2023 | 2024 | 2025 | 2026 | 2031 |
| Payout | 41%  | 45%  | 34%  | 32%  | 29%  | 25%  | 26%  | 48%  | 34%  | 26%  | 24%  | 24%  |

As a small community bank, we don't believe that Citizens Financial Services enjoys significant competitive advantages relative to its peer group. While the company did cut its dividend during 2020, Citizens Financial Services was able to grow its dividend each year during the 2007 to 2009 financial crisis. In addition, several special dividends were paid out during this period, though no other such distributions have been made since 2015. With an expected dividend payout ratio of just 24% for 2026, it is likely that the dividend will continue to grow.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Following first quarter results, Citizens Financial Services is expected to return 7.3% annually through 2031, down from 8.0% previously. This projected return stems from our expectations for 2.0% earnings growth, the starting yield of 3.1%, and a low single-digit tailwind from multiple expansion. Citizens Financial Services is a small community bank that has proven resilient over a long period of time. We maintain our hold rating on shares Citizens Financial Services due to projected returns and a weak dividend risk score.
