Overview & Current Events

Eagle Bancorp Montana, Inc. is a bank holding company and its primary business activity is the ownership of Opportunity Bank of Montana (OBMT), a chartered commercial bank. The bank is primarily engaged in attracting deposits from the community and utilizing such deposits, along with borrowings and other funds, to originate one-to-four family residential real estate, commercial real estate, commercial, and agriculture loans. Additionally, the company invests in certain investment and mortgage-related securities. As of the end of the second quarter of 2026, the company's total assets were $2.13 billion, total loans were $1.56 billion, and total deposits were $1.79 billion. Eagle Bancorp Montana operates 30 branch offices across the state of Montana. The company was founded in 1922 and has 385 employees.

On July 28th, 2026, Eagle Bancorp Montana announced its financial results for the second quarter of fiscal year 2026, which ended June 30th, 2026. For the quarter, the company reported net income of $3.7 million, down from $4.0 million in Q1 2026, but this was a 14.8% increase from the $3.2 million reported for Q2 2025. Reported earnings per diluted share for the quarter were $0.47, down from $0.51 in Q1 2026 and up from $0.41 in the same quarter last year.

The quarterly earnings reflect Eagle Bancorp's net interest margin (NIM) expansion to 4.15%, up from 4.11% in Q1 2026 and 3.91% in Q2 2025, supported by declining funding costs and resilient yields on interest-earning assets. Total loans stood at $1.56 billion, an increase of $39.1 million from Q1 2026 but a decrease of $11.3 million year-over-year, indicating improved sequential lending activity. Deposits totaled $1.79 billion, remaining broadly unchanged quarter-over-quarter and increasing 3.0% year-over-year, underscoring continued strength in liquidity. Loan performance was mixed: commercial real estate loans increased modestly year-over-year to $684.4 million, while agricultural and farmland loans declined 7.3% year-over-year to $294.2 million. Net interest income for Q2 2026 was $19.1 million, a 2.3% increase from Q1 2026 and a 5.5% increase year-over-year, as lower funding costs more than offset modest compression in earning asset yields. Noninterest income increased 2.8% quarter-over-quarter to $5.0 million, supported by higher mortgage banking income. Provision for credit losses increased to $343,000, up from $279,000 in Q1 2026 but down from $1.0 million in Q2 2025. For the quarter, Eagle Bancorp's return on average assets (ROA) was 0.71%, and return on average equity (ROE) was 7.57%, both declining sequentially but improving year-over-year. The core efficiency ratio worsened to 77.59%, indicating lower operating efficiency. Credit quality remains solid, with net loan charge-offs totaling $193,000, and nonperforming loans representing 0.27% of portfolio loans.

Management expects deposit costs to remain well managed through 2026 and is positioning the balance sheet to sustain the net interest margin amid potential rate increases.

Eagle Bancorp Montana Inc. (EBMT)

Updated July 30th, 2026, by Sure Dividend Analyst

The company has grown earnings by 4.1% per year since 2016 and -0.7% over the past five years. The above average EPS in 2020 ($3.11) was driven by higher mortgage banking operations due to the historically low interest rate environment, substantial gains from loan sales, and significant contributions from the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP). These factors, combined with effective cost management, led to record earnings for that year. We expect earnings to increase by 6% per year for the next five years. The company has been able to increase its dividend for an impressive 16 consecutive years. Over the last five years, the average annual dividend growth rate is 5.6%. In July 2026, the company increased its quarterly dividend by 1.7% from $0.1450 to $0.1475 per share.

Valuation Analysis

During the past decade shares of Eagle Bancorp Montana have traded with an average price-to-earnings ratio of about 12.3 and today, it stands at 11.2. We are using 12 times earnings as a fair value baseline, implying the potential for a valuation tailwind. The stock’s dividend yield is currently 2.5%, which is slightly below the average yield of 2.7% for the past decade.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2026	2031
Payout	24%	34%	41%	22%	13%	21%	37%	43%	46%	31%	28%	31%

During the past five years, the company’s dividend payout ratio has averaged around 35%. Eagle Bancorp Montana’s dividend is at the moment comfortably covered by earnings. Given the expected earnings growth, there is room for the dividend to continue to grow at least at the same pace and keep the payout ratio around the same levels which is safe.

Eagle Bancorp Montana, Inc., the holding company of Opportunity Bank of Montana, stands out in the competitive landscape due to its strong community banking model and strategic focus on high-quality loan growth. With a robust presence in Montana, the bank has developed a competitive advantage through personalized customer service and deep local market knowledge. During economic recessions, the bank has demonstrated resilience by maintaining strong asset quality and conservative lending practices, which have mitigated credit losses and safeguarded profitability.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

Eagle Bancorp Montana is an old and well-established community bank active across the state of Montana. The company has a solid dividend growth track record. We estimate total return potential of 9.7% per year for the next five years based on 6% earnings-per-share growth, the dividend, and a valuation tailwind. The shares earn a buy rating.
