Overview & Current Events

United Bankshares was formed in 1982 and since that time, has acquired more than 30 separate banking institutions. This focus on acquisitions, in addition to organic growth, has allowed United to expand into a regional powerhouse in the Mid-Atlantic with a $6.6 billion market capitalization, about $30 billion in total assets, and annual revenue of about a billion dollars. The company has a long dividend history, with a very impressive 52 consecutive years of dividend increases.

United posted second quarter earnings on July 23rd, 2026, and results were better than expected on both the top and bottom lines. Earnings-per-share came to 95 cents, which was six cents ahead of estimates. On a dollar basis, earnings rose from $121 million to $131 million. Revenue was up 5.8% year-over-year to $324 million, beating estimates by $3 million.

Net interest income was up $11 million, or 4%, from the year-ago period. Average net loans were up $971 million, or 4%, from the year-ago period, while the yield on those loans was down 27 basis points. Net interest margin was 3.81%, which was flat to a year ago.

Provision for credit losses came to $5 million, down slightly from $5.9 million a year earlier. Noninterest income was $7 million, or 22%, from a year earlier. Noninterest expense was up $6.7 million, or 5%, from last year's Q2.

We now see $3.70 in adjusted earnings-per-share for this year after a decent Q2. We note plateauing margins aren't supportive of much higher earnings, but revenue is growing nicely.

Growth on a Per-Share Basis

Year	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2026	2031
EPS	$1.99	$1.54	$2.45	$2.55	$2.80	$2.97	$2.80	$2.71	$2.75	$3.35	$3.70	$4.72
DPS	$1.32	$1.33	$1.36	$1.37	$1.40	$1.41	$1.44	$1.45	$1.48	$1.49	$1.52	$1.64
Shares²	74	98	102	102	129	129	129	135	135	141	140	135

Earnings-per-share have been flat for a few years now, as the company has struggled with translating asset and loan growth into profits. We now see 5% annual earnings growth. We note the record high base in earnings for 2026 as making future growth more challenging.

United has always grown through acquisitions, and we do not believe that will change. We note the former concern about NIM has abated, as United has managed to sizably increase its lending margins while also growing the book. Assuming rates remain elevated, United will be subject to potentially much higher funding costs, which will see its NIM deteriorate if it cannot produce commensurate gains in lending yields. Net interest margin continued to rise very strongly in 2025, and first quarter NIM continued that trend. However, NIM was flat in Q2 of 2026, so investors would do well to monitor this in the coming quarters.

Valuation Analysis

Year	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	Now	2031
Avg. P/E	19.3	23.6	14.7	14.6	10.0	12.5	14.5	13.6	13.7	10.9	13.0	13.0
Avg. Yld.	3.4%	3.8%	3.8%	3.7%	5.0%	3.8%	3.6%	4.1%	3.9%	3.9%	3.2%	2.7%

We see fair value at 13 times earnings, given where peer valuations are at present. We have boosted our estimate of fair value on strong NIM and credit quality. Shares are fairly valued at the moment given they go for exactly 13 times earnings. The yield on the stock is now 3.2%, so it is a strong choice for income investors, and we think the dividend will rise at low single-digit rates over the intermediate term. We believe the yield could be lower in the coming years given the stock is now fairly valued. Given the yield and its 52-year dividend increase streak, United is an exemplary dividend stock.

Safety, Quality, Competitive Advantage, & Recession Resiliency

Year	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2026	2031
Payout	66%	86%	56%	54%	50%	47%	51%	54%	54%	44%	41%	35%

United's dividend payout ratio is now 41% of earnings, and we expect it will remain near there. We see United's dividend as safe and able to weather an economic downturn, as it did during the Great Recession. The higher share count makes the dividend more costly, but United has raised its payout for an extremely impressive five decades.

United's competitive advantage is its strong market position in the areas it serves. It is headquartered in West Virginia where competition is relatively light, and it is expanding into more densely populated areas like northern Virginia. That does not make it immune from recessions, but its performance in 2008 and 2009 was exemplary, and held up in very challenging conditions in 2020, and thrived in 2021.

Final Thoughts & Recommendation

United is now expected to produce 7.6% annual returns in the coming years, as we forecast 5% growth, and see the stock as fairly valued. The yield is attractive at 3.2% and should remain safe for years to come, so United could be worth a look for pure income investors. Shares continue to earn a hold rating as we see the road ahead being somewhat tough from a growth perspective, albeit with record earnings on tap this year.
